Course Description

Applied lessons are designed to be a progressive sequence of learning adapted to each individual tuba and euphonium student. Each student is presented with the opportunity to develop the highest level of musicianship and artistry that he/she/they are capable. In addition to in-class learning experiences, each student is expected to challenge themselves through collaboration and innovative outreach experiences.

Student Learning Outcomes

Throughout the semester each student is expected to be able to demonstrate the following:

- a growing interest in their craft (reading articles, listening to and exploring tuba/euphonium related materials)
- be able to clearly express ideas and thoughts when speaking in public
- develop a positive and constructive evaluation of performances
- express a clear understanding and execution of scales and technical exercises
- explore various ways of expressing oneself musically
- continually strive to challenge and push yourself out of your comfort zone

Lesson Schedules

- Music minors and non-majors will meet with Dr. VanTuinen for 50 minutes each week after agreeing up a meeting time.
- Tuba/Euphonium Majors in combination and Music Education will have weekly 50-minute lessons with Dr. VanTuinen.
- Freshman and Sophomore Tuba/Euphonium Majors in combination and Music Education will have an additional weekly 30-minute lesson with a designated GA
- Each Freshman and Sophomore will heavily dig into both Bb and C treble clef, being tested at the end of each semester.
- If you wish to have additional lessons with the GA and are outside of the first two years of study please reach out.
- When Dr. VanTuinen is away on tour lessons will be rearranged and adjusted accordingly.

Practice Expectations

Music Performance Majors - 3-4 hours of practice per day (goal oriented and efficient)

- 1 hour devoted to fundamentals (musicality, long tones, scales, lip slurs, intonation, improvisation, transposition)
- 30 minutes devoted to etudes (both lyrical and technical)
- 30 minutes devoted to orchestral/band and brass band excerpts
- 1-2 hours devoted to solo, chamber and ensemble repertoire

Music Education/Combination Majors/Minors - Minimum 2 hours of practice per day (goal oriented and efficient)

- 30 minutes devoted to fundamentals (musicality, long tones, scales, lip slurs, intonation, improvisation, transposition)
- 30 minutes devoted to etudes (both lyrical and technical)
- 1-2 hours devoted to solo, chamber and ensemble repertoire

Practice Room Policy

- No food or drink in the practice rooms. The only exception is water in a closed container that is NOT placed on the pianos!
- No smoking/tobacco/vaping in the practice room.
- Practice room codes/keys are not to be shared. DO NOT provide others access to practice rooms.
- Turn off lights, Fan/VAE (in Wenger units), and secure the door when leaving.
- No practicing or warming up in the hallways. All warming up and practicing must take place in the practice room with the door closed.
- All keys are due back at the end of the spring semester NO LATER than the Tuesday (4pm) of exam week.
- THE PRACTICE ROOM IS FOR PRACTICE ONLY. IT IS NOT A PLACE TO STUDY, DO HOMEWORK, OR REST.

Juries

Juries will take place at the end of each semester and act as a final exam of sorts for your applied lesson/studio grade. Students will prepare two selected works of contrasting styles to perform in front of a panel of judges (brass faculty) and will be assessed according to their preparation. Sight-reading may be administered during these examinations.

An end of the semester 8-minute brass jury is required of all students except those giving recitals during that period. Brass juries will take place in MUB 101 in front of the entire brass faculty. Students will be expected to play one-two selections chosen by the instructor and student as well as sight-reading.

Pre-professional juries (or PPJ's) traditionally take place at the end of the 4th semester of undergraduate study. These are 16 minutes long and typically include a performance of a solo work with piano accompaniment as well as a short, 2-3-minute presentation on the work and composer, sight-reading and copies of the student's resume handed out to the faculty. These rarely occur during the fall semester but in the spring, there will be a significant amount of PPJ's.

Brass Juries - Spring 2023, Monday May 1, 9:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m.

- A sign-up sheet will be posted outside of MUB 101 one week prior.

Scale/Sight Reading Jury

Every student will perform a scale/sight-reading jury during the last week of classes outside of their performance jury. Scales and patterns will be assigned to each student on an individual basis.

- A sign-up sheet will be sent out via email a week prior.
- Scale and Sight-Reading Juries will take place during your last lesson of the semester. If that lesson is missed, it will be made up during one of the reading days.

Studio Class

Monday's at 12:50 each week

- Each we will meet as a full studio and explore various topics within the low brass world.
- Please come prepared to each studio class with a planner and any materials we discuss over email.
- Occasionally, we will rehearse as a full tuba/euphonium ensemble

Studio location will be in a rotation with the entire brass area.

Recital Attendance

All studio members are required to attend any Tuba/Euphonium performance (i.e., recitals). I highly encourage every person to attend all large ensemble concerts to support your studio mates. If you need to miss an event, I need to know at least a week prior unless it's an emergency. If not notified your grade will be negatively impacted.

ALL STUDIO AND GUEST ARTIST RECITALS ARE REQUIRED!!

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/evals>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: Student Honor Pledge

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
