

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
JUNIOR / SENIOR WOODWIND RECITAL
MVW 3970 / 4971
Dr. Dione Chandler, Adjunct Lecturer of Oboe
Email: a.chandler@uf.edu

Fall 2023
Office: MUB 353
Office Hours: by appointment

Purpose:

To prepare and perform a solo oboe recital to the best of your ability.

Materials:

Students will need an oboe, multiple reeds, a stand (for home practice and rehearsal), a metronome, and a tuner. Music must be purchased by the student, checked out from the library, or may be provided by the professor.

Description:

This course helps the student to prepare for a solo recital performance, requiring extra time and effort for both the student and the professor, beyond studio lessons (MVW 3432 or MVW 4442) This includes recital jury preparation, dress rehearsals, and any additional rehearsals that may be required leading up to the performance.

Missed class policy:

If a student must miss a rehearsal, they must contact the professor at least 24 hours in advance, if at all possible. Excused absences include absences due to illness or family emergency or required exam for another course (if scheduled during our rehearsal). Because we only rehearse once a week, regular attendance is expected and MANDATORY.

Requirements:

Preparedness for and attendance at each lesson and rehearsal (regular practice outside of rehearsal is required);
Performances: scheduled individually for each student.

Grading:

Students' semester grades will be based entirely on attendance, preparation, and the final performance. For each unexcused absence, the final grade will be lowered (A becomes A-, A- becomes B+, etc...) Regular tardiness will also negatively impact the final grade – 3 tardies will equal one unexcused absence. Should there be a question about the current grade, please consult the professor.

**Rehearsals with the pianist should begin one month prior to the recital date. The recital jury should take place no later than two weeks before the recital and should be scheduled to accommodate the faculty committee's and the pianist's schedules. The jury does not need to include the chamber ensemble.

**At the jury, the student must provide a program, with original program notes, for the committee to proofread. The edited program should be submitted to the front office two weeks prior to the recital.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies. <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Students requesting accommodations due to disabilities:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/> . Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/> . Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Academic honor policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/> ) On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

In-class recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
