Course Description/Purpose:

TPA 4601, Stage Management, is a course for undergraduate School of Theatre and Dance students that introduces the principles and techniques of stage management, explores practical application, and examines topics specific to the work of a stage manager.

Course Objectives and Student Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, students will:

- Obtain an understanding of stage management concepts and methods
- Acquire the organizational, time management, and communication skills needed to manage a production
- Discover collaboration, problem solving, and team management within the theatrical creation process
- Have an awareness of how stage managers intentionally and can unconsciously influence process
- Achieve confidence in contributing to class discussions with a thoughtful and productive approach
- Gain a set of transferable skills that are applicable beyond stage management
- Refine understanding and proficiency through practical application

College of the Arts (CoTA) Meta-Strategy 2021-2025: Systemic Resilience:

Course discussions will center on our College Meta-Strategy.

The University of Florida College of the Arts intends to be a transformative community, responding to and generating paradigmatic shifts in the arts and beyond. We do so by:

- Embracing the complexity of our evolving human experience and seeking to empower our students and faculty to shape that experience fearlessly through critical study, creative practice, and provocation.
- Collaborating effectively with the forces of change.
- Preparing students to access and unsettle centers of power in a radically changing world.
- Facilitating an arts education that will position emerging artists and researchers as catalysts for equity on local and global levels.

Required Texts:

- The Stage Manager's Tool Kit (3rd Edition) by Laurie Kinckman (2021)
- Additional readings and plays to be provided via Canvas or by the course instructor

The plays and dance works we examine in this course may contain difficult material including (but not limited to) sexual violence, racial violence, self-harming behavior, mental health struggles, physical violence, and coarse language. Summaries specific to each play and work will be detailed on the course Canvas page. Please connect with me in person or via email if you feel that you are unable to read/watch or engage in discussion and assignments for a specific play/dance work. I would like us to discuss alternate arrangements to ensure your full participation in the course.

Suggested Texts:

- Stage Management Theory as a Guide to Practice: Cultivating a Creative Approach (1st Edition) by Lisa Porter and Narda E. Alcorn (2020)

Fall 2023 • Stage Management • TPA 4601

T/Th Periods 6 & 7 (12:50 -2:45 pm) • 3 Credit Hours • McGuire Pavilion, Conference Room, #212

Required Materials:

- Access to a computer with Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel programs and/or Google Docs (using UF email credentials)
- Access to a computer with internet connectivity to access the course Canvas site
- Computer software with ability to convert documents to PDF files

Course Fees:

- Course fees are assessed for certain courses to offset the cost of materials or supply items consumed in the course of instruction. A list of approved courses and fees is published in the schedule of courses each semester. The UF schedule of courses lists $109.70 as the additional fee for this course.

Course Requirements:

- Full participation in all class discussions, activities, and assignments
- Complete all assignments on time
- Be prepared to present and discuss your assignments each week
- Exercise inclusivity and be open to viewpoints of fellow classmates as course material is explored

Course Attendance:

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Only one (1) unexcused absence from class will be permitted without penalty. Each additional unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class. Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog and require appropriate documentation. Click here to read the university attendance policies.

Accommodations:

If you anticipate challenges related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with me. I would like us to discuss ways to ensure your full participation in the course. Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

GatorEvals Course Evaluation:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

Student Conduct Code:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have questions or concerns, please consult the instructor(s).

Information on UF grading policies for assigning grade points can be found:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Assignment Guidelines:

- All written assignments should follow APA (American Psychological Association) style guidelines. (The APA guidelines do not apply to stage management paperwork assignments such as prop lists, scene breakdowns etc). Purdue University's Online Writing Lab (OWL) is a terrific APA resource. <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>
- Submitted assignments (non-reading) will be accepted until the start of class on the day they are due. After 12:50 pm the assignment will be considered late. Grades on late assignments will be lowered one (1) letter grade for each late day. Reading assignments are due at 12:50 pm on the day they are due.

Please note: Information contained in this syllabus, other than the grade and absence policy, is subject to change with advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor to enhance learning opportunities. Any changes will be clearly communicated in class and via the course Canvas site.
