Course Description

This arts-based and experiential course provides a personal exploration of the art of self-care for artists in healthcare. The course takes a multi-dimensional approach and emphasizes using creative approaches to self-care for arts in medicine professionals. Students will learn concepts in self-care while engaging in immersive arts experiences to revitalize themselves both professionally and personally.

This course is appropriate for graduate students and professionals of the arts, humanities, sciences, human services, and health related professions.

Objectives

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Explain the key concepts of self-care and their importance in the lives of family caregivers, professional caregivers, patients, communities and ourselves
2. Define a multi-dimensional wellness model that utilizes creative approaches to enhance one's physical, emotional, intellectual, spiritual, social/cultural environmental, occupational and environmental health
3. Articulate how creativity and the arts can enhance one's self-care within a multi-dimensional wellness model
4. Enhance their current creative practice to further sustain and revitalize themselves both personally and professionally
5. Plan and facilitate self-care programs for family caregivers, professional caregivers, patients, communities and the general public

Required and Recommended Course Materials

- Required Text: Skovholt, T.M. & Trotter-Mathison, M. (2016). The resilient practitioner: Burnout and compassion fatigue prevention and self-care strategies for the helping professions. New York: Routledge
- Other materials will be made available on Canvas or can be found in UF's online collections

Critical Dates and Assignments

There will be two major assignments in this course: a Personal Self-Care and Resiliency Project and a Professional Self-Care Contribution. Descriptions of both assignments are available in e-learning. Additional learning will be heavily weighted towards discussions around the text and discussions around the various types of self-care, the arts and self-care, and the stages of the two major assignments.

Please thoroughly read and review the all assignment specifications in the Assignments section available in the eLearning site. This will ensure you receive the most complete grade for your efforts.

Class Participation and Late Assignments

Students are expected to log in to all courses within the first 48 hours. As this is an asynchronous course, faculty recommend logging in to the course, and checking the inbox, announcements, and course materials at least three times per week. Participating less than this than this may cause students to fall behind in work or miss important announcements. Other class expectations are consistent with university policies that can be found at <https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/>.

Late assignments will receive a 5% per day late deduction until the deduction reaches 25%

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance>) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/#text>

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Policy on Course Syllabi 3 UF, Academic Affairs, August 5th, 2021 Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
