To whom it may concern,

On behalf of the University of Florida student organization Fine Arts College Council, working along with academic units in the College of Fine Arts and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, we would like to invite you to join us this October in celebrating National Arts and Humanities Month (NAHM). Reflecting on the success of last year's celebration, we invite you to kick off the month with our Arts and Cultural Opportunities Fair on Monday, October 1, 2012, from 10 am-2pm. This collaborative celebration is a tool for building awareness and excitement for activities continuing throughout the month and year.

We would like to invite your organization to participate in the Arts and Cultural Opportunities Fair. If you choose to participate, we will provide one table and two chairs on the J. Wayne Reitz Union colonnade where students, faculty, staff, and guests can learn more about your organization. Participation in the fair is free and space will be provided on a first-come, first-serve basis. Groups will be responsible for their own parking or drop-off, staff, table coverings and displays, collateral material, and optional special programming administered at their table (i.e., games, raffles, trivia, prizes, volunteer sign-ups, etc.)

It is our hope that we will once again join in partnering with the many arts and humanities groups at UF and the Gainesville community for this special event. Excitement is already building from campus community members that want to learn more about your organization!
