

35 Things we love about UF College of Fine Arts

Celebrating our 35th Anniversary

1

The Gator Nation

There is no bond stronger than the one formed when you become a member of The Gator Nation. In every corner of the globe, Gators accomplish remarkable feats with innovative thinking and inspired collaboration.

Florida Players Actors perform in "Finian's Rainbow," 1955

2 Florida Players

This student-run organization was created in 1932 and has played an important role in performance traditions at UF.

3 UF is a Creative Campus

... a place where students' right-brained endeavors complement traditional left-brain education, providing a blend of skills considered vital to their future success as citizens in a new marketplace of ideas.

14 SA+AH's WARP Program

15 Aerial Dance

Students have the opportunity to "reach new heights" in the aerial dance student organization Volaticus, a Latin derivative for "take flight." Fitting.

26 H.O.T. (Handbuilt or Thrown) Clay Sales

The creations of student ceramic artists make perfect gifts or décor for your dorm, apartment or home.

27 100 Years of Symphony Orchestra

28 Among the Masters

The College of Fine Arts hosts dozens of renowned and expert guest artists and presenters to campus each year for masterclasses, lecture programs and instruction for our students.

7 Online Masters in Art Education

The College of Fine Arts launched its first online masters program in summer 2010. "Without compromising the traditional humanity of art making, our graduates will empower students to express themselves in ways not possible before," said Professor Craig Roland.

SA + AH drawing students create murals at Tacachale, a residential facility in Gainesville for people with developmental disabilities.

8 Giving Back

In addition to producing thousands of hours of individual community service, group projects engage students in service learning, including:

- (Arts in Medicine) programs in rural Florida gulf communities and Rwanda
- Dance for Life—a free, therapeutic dance program for people with Parkinson's disease

9 Voices

From glee clubs, chorales, and choruses to opera, musical theatre and world ensembles: the power and beauty of the voice has played an important part in the history and culture of UF.

10 UF Digital Worlds Institute

22 Our Students

Approximately 1,100 students are pursuing majors in degrees offered by the College of Fine Arts. Another 5,000 university students enroll in courses and participate in various creative and cultural opportunities offered by our college.
