Course Description

The study of rhythms, intervals, motifs, phrases, melodies, chords and chord progressions, in the standard clefs through listening, playing, singing, and writing. Chord study includes primary and secondary triads in root position and inversions, non-harmonic tones and seventh chords.

Beyond acquiring skills and knowledge, students will experience different processes of learning and practicing to be better prepared for their future music theory courses and professional careers. Students will also be encouraged to relate content to their personal musical experiences and to work in a cooperative atmosphere.

Course Content

Notation, scales, intervals, key signatures, pulse, rhythm, meter, chords and inversions, figured bass, harmonic analysis, cadences, part writing, sight singing, and ear training.

Course Objectives

Fulfill the prerequisites for upper level music theory courses.
Use musical notation to create and express musical ideas.
Acquire the skills to sight sing musical materials.
Experiment with different methods for developing musical skills and knowledge.
Understand the basics of music theory, as described in the Course Content.

Course Expectations

The students should:

Read the Syllabus and all announcements and assignments thoroughly.
Reserve a reasonable amount of time for homework (practicing, reading, listening, etc.) according to the demands of the course. Normally students need 4 to 6 hours a week for this class.
Maintain a professional, respectful attitude towards other students and your instructor.
Actively engage in every class, singing (alone or in-group), asking questions, and paying attention to the instructor and to other colleagues’ activities.
Follow their progress on Canvas. Access elearning.ufl.edu for more information.
Notify your instructor in case of any difficulty with the course—the instructor is here to help you!

The instructor should:

Present content considering different types of learners.
Maintain a professional, respectful attitude towards students.
Carefully listen to students’ questions and demands, and be prepared to help them to learn.
Inspire students to enjoy all the activities of the course, and ultimately, music itself!
Provide feedback regarding student’s progress.
Evaluation information

Students

1. Written exams – Please see below one example question from a written exam:

   The example contains leading-tone 7th chords.
   1. Provide a Roman numeral analysis for each chord.
   2. Circle and identify all nonharmonic tones.
   3. Examine each leading-tone 7th chord and determine if the leading tone and the 7th resolve as expected.

2. Dictation exams – Students should be able to aurally understand and clearly notate musical ideas.

3. Sight singing exams – Students will be evaluated considering intonation, solfege, rhythm, and musicianship. There will be point deductions for pauses.

4. Assignments/homework – At least once a week. May consist of exercises from the book, writing a melody, be prepared to sing a melody, or any other activity relevant for the course.

5. Quizzes – At least once a week, quizzes will cover the ongoing and previous content of the class.

6. Attendance – Please see information in the grading section, below.

N.B.: Communication is not only writing/saying something; it is also what the reader/listener UNDERSTANDS from what has been written/said! With that in mind, students must provide precise, clearly notated/sang/said answers.

Ex. 1: Not expected notation.

Ex. 2: Expected notation.
Instructor

1. Two instructor/course evaluations per semester. Students may keep anonymity.

2. Students are welcome to inform the instructor, by email or during office hours, of any suggestions, complaints, and critiques.

3. Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Grading

1. Written exams = 25% (Mid-Term = 10% / Final = 15%)

2. Dictation exams (3) = 15%

3. Sight singing exams (3) = 15%

4. Assignments/homework = 20%

5. Quizzes = 15%

6. Attendance = 10%

Each class missed without a documented reason will deduct 10% of the total attendance grade (1% of the final grade). If the attendance grade reaches 0 the student automatically receives an E grade (failure).

* More about attendance and other details:

• A documented reason for missing a class might be: medical report, concerts or special events, and death in the family.
• A documented reason for missing a class might NOT BE: broken alarms, tiredness, alligator in the way, or traffic.
• Students must inform (via email) the instructor about an absence at least 24 hours before the beginning of class.
• Special cases should be informed to the instructor, who might consider other reasons for excusing absences, following the norms of the University of Florida.
• No late work will be accepted unless one reason, from the ones presented above, is given.
• Tardiness is not allowed. The class begins exactly at the allotted time.
• Attendance will be verified in the beginning of every class.
• Students are responsible for learning the content of a missed class, and might (or should!) use office hours to prevent staying behind.

* More information about attendance here.

Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
