

the instructor and your scene partner previous to the missed class, this does not “excuse” your absence this is simple professional courtesy. Three tardies equal 1 absence.

Note: There is no difference between “excused” and “unexcused” absences. Only absences.

Clothing/Dress: Dress appropriately for the situation at hand. Wear comfortable, casual, non-binding clothes in which you can move (no skirts, tight pants, or fragile clothing). No bare mid-drifts, no t-shirts with cut-off sleeves (tank-tops are acceptable). Do not wear excessively baggy clothing. Wear shoes that permit active movement (no boots, no sandals, flip-flops, clogs, high heels, backless styles, etc.). Bring rehearsal shoes when necessary. Refrain from wearing jewelry; you will be asked to take it off. No tongue piercings. No facial piercings. A clean professional look in movement clothes is preferred; solid colored shirts and appropriate athletic pants/shorts.

-Hair should be pulled back out of the face.

-NO HATS.

A student not dressed appropriately will be permitted to watch class and accept an absence for the day (See Attendance Policy). This is an experiential class, you learn by participating. You must dress appropriately in order to participate.

Come to class ready to work, not ready to change clothes. A student who arrives to class “on time” but then has to leave to change will accept a tardy. (“I’m here but I’m going to the bathroom,” means you are NOT here. You will be marked tardy. Three tardies = one absence).

Behavior: Part of learning the acting process is also learning how to act professionally, in order to be able to fully explore the acting process you are encouraged to take “risks.” The classroom is a laboratory where you should feel “safe” to fully commit to acting choices and scenes. Any student who destroys the “safety zone” of the classroom will be asked to reconsider their choice to take this class.

Decorum: Your work in class is a major part of your grade. This includes your classroom and out of class rehearsal decorum because it strongly impacts the quality of instruction for you and your partners. You are expected to show respect for yourself, your partners, and the art and craft of theatre. You are also expected to respect the spaces in which we work by preparing the space for work and clearing it after you are finished working. Part of learning the acting process is also learning how to act professionally. Unprofessional conduct will not be tolerated.

Food and drinks (except water) are not permitted in class. No gum.

Cell phones/electronic devices: Silence or Turn off all cell phones and electronic devices. Do NOT leave them on vibrate. If your cell phone rings in class be prepared to accept a mark of “tardy” for the day. Three tardies equal 1 absence.

Written Work (Playcards, Critical Thinking Papers, Research Papers): All papers and assignments must be typed and handed in on time. Electronic submissions are preferred and must be submitted prior to the beginning of class. Late assignments and papers will not be accepted. Students will accept a zero (0) for incomplete assignments and assignments that are not turned-in on the assigned date. Papers will be written in 12 point Times or Calibri font using double spacing. The instructor will not read papers that do not adhere to font size and spacing requirements. Pay close attention to minimum and maximum page/word length. The instructor will not read papers that are late, nor will the instructor read your work prior to submission. Submit only well-written work that has been proof-read.

Make-Up Work: Late written work will not be accepted. Performance assignments must be performed for the sake of your partner. You will NOT be able to receive a “make-up” grade except under extenuating circumstances at the judgment of the instructor. Because the course depends on the co-operation of partners in scene work, it is imperative that work be presented ON TIME. In the event that an absence is known in advance, you must make arrangements to present the work early.

Academic Honesty: All students in attendance at the University of Florida are expected to be honorable and to observe standards of conduct appropriate to a community of scholars. The University expects from its students a higher standard of conduct than the minimum required to avoid discipline. Academic misconduct includes all acts of dishonesty in any academically related matter.

*Plagiarism is an act of Academic Misconduct.

You will be reported to the Dean’s office for plagiarism on summary of playcards (monologue selection is exempt from this).

Copying and pasting the work of your peers for your CTLs is considered plagiarism.

Be sure you understand the University’s Academic Guidelines and policies regarding Academic Honesty and Ethical Conduct. Regarding work submitted for credit, the following pledge is required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

Unauthorized Recordings: A student shall not without express authorization from the faculty member and, if required by law, from other participants make or receive any recording including, but not limited to, audio and video recordings, of any class, co-curricular meeting, organizational meeting, or meeting with a faculty member. Do not take photos or videos of class.

Disabilities: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation.

Course Requirements:

Participation in class exercises.

Rehearsal: Students are expected to prepare and rehearse scenes outside of class for in-class evaluation.

Performance: Various solo and partner/ensemble scenes including improvisation, monologues and scenes from dramatic literature will be evaluated for a grade. Scenes not prepared for preliminary or final presentations will receive a grade of zero for that portion of the assignment. ALWAYS be prepared.

Notes: Note taking is expected, do not interrupt the flow of class to run to your notebooks to take notes, this takes time away from doing work. You may not use computers/mobile devices to take notes in class. All students are expected to take daily notes as well as notes on their work in class and observation notes of their colleagues.

Critical Thinking/Assessment Papers: See page 7. Critical Thinking/Assessment Papers will reflect on the “Lessons of the Day” gained from class meetings and comparisons and contrasts will be made between Movement training and the acting process. This assignment must be written in third person. This will be written in a 5-paragraph essay format.

In order to successfully complete the CTP assignment, it is suggested that all students maintain a Critical Thinking Log (CTL) and Rehearsal Log (RL) for the course:

Critical Thinking Logs (CTLs): Included should be specific vocabulary, key phrases, concepts, exercise descriptions, personal notes and personal observations.

Clearly identify and label each of the four sections for CTL entries.

1. Observation: A list of exercises and activities of each day. This is a bulleted LIST
2. Description: Provide a clear description of specific exercises and activities listed under “Observation”. It is in this section that you note major exercises and tasks and how to do them.
3. Lesson of the Day: This is a CONCEPT, do NOT list a technique. Rather, answer “What is the lesson or lessons I gained from being in class today?” This is a cause-effect statement or a concept that leads to clarity. For example, “Physical listening leads to a visible ‘give-and-take’ between scene partners.”
4. Application: Be SPECIFIC. What is the relationship of the Lesson to the Acting Process? Personalize it; How will YOU apply these lessons to your personal acting approach or rehearsal process? Mention if the lesson challenges/broadens your preconceived ideas of the acting process or character creation process. Do NOT list how you will apply it to class work, this section is for making relationships between concepts learned in class and the craft of performing. Note a specific task you will attend to in your next NON MOVEMENT rehearsal (the idea is to state how a concept and task from class will be applied to your production work or rehearsal process). You can complete the following sentence: “In my next rehearsal for (The Sea Gull) I will (do what task) in order to (make a statement about the professional or artistic goal the task supports).”

Length of Entries—Daily Entries need not be any longer than 1-1 ½ pages if written well and succinct.

Rehearsal Log: Out of class rehearsals for in class presentations.

NOTE: This is for recording the work you do outside of class for Movement class presentation and/or review. Logs will include time, date, location, scene, who was present, what was accomplished, and what discoveries were made. Note what was successful and what was a challenge to be worked on in the next meeting. All Rehearsal Logs will be a separate section at the end of the weekly Critical Thinking Log. Students are expected to record a MINIMUM of two rehearsal logs per week.

Playcards: See page 7. See course schedule for due dates. All play cards will include title, author name, date written, plot summary (2 page –500 word— max), and a monologue selection with character name that would be appropriate for YOU or a colleague Note who SPECIFICALLY might be able to use the selected monologue for an audition piece (be specific, give a NAME of a classmate or a peer).

Late playcards will receive a grade of zero.

Plagiarism is considered an act of Academic Misconduct. You will be reported to the dean and receive a failing grade for the class if plagiarism on this SIMPLE assignment is discovered.

Acting Process Papers: See page 8. Written in first person.

Character Analysis: An analysis of you. See page 8. Written in first person.

Research Paper/Presentation— See page 9. A well researched, well written project. Minimum 1000 words in length, double-spaced, 12 point Times or Calibri Font, MLA style citations.

--This is a THREE part assignment: 1) Paper, 2) A 1-2 page “cheat sheet” in outline form to be copied and given to each member of the class, 3) 15-20 minute presentation of research. See Research Paper description further in the syllabus.

Required Viewing: 1984, The Sea Gull, Kiss Me Kate, BFA Dance Showcase, Agbedidi

Critical Dates:

A separate course calendar will be provided in class.

Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open.

Course Fees: Associated fees can be found at <http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/soc/201601/all/theadanc.htm>.

Grading/Evaluation:

Scenes/Monologues will be evaluated on quality of work, preparation, improvement in vocal/physical skills, commitment to action, growth, ability to incorporate notes into performance.

Written work will be graded on following directions for content and format as well as quality of work and ability to express critical thinking in a scholarly manner.

- 10% Playcards
- 10% Prelim. Approach, Prelim. Character Analysis, Final Approach, Final Analysis
- 10% Critical Thinking Papers #1 and #2
- 10% Research Paper/Outline/Presentation
- 30% Performance: Monologue/Scene Presentations
- 10% Final Presentation
- 10% Professionalism, Participation, Potential,
- 10% Quizzes, Daily Written Assignments (E-mailed/Impromptu responses)

Grade Scale:

90.0-100 = A	85.1-87.9 = B+	75.1-77.9 = C+	65.1-67.9 = D+	0-57.9=E
88.0-89.9= A-	80.0-85.0 = B	70.0-75.0 = C	60.0-65.0 = D
	78.0-79.9= B-	68.0-69.9= C-	58.0-59.9= D-

Grading will be based on participation, quality of work, approach, enthusiasm, development, completion of fully memorized monologues and scenes, and the student’s ability to express written and oral knowledge concerning the course topics.

Since this course presupposes keen interest in acting as a potential career, subjective evaluations of intangibles such as effort, experimentation, criticism, participation, discipline, etc. is a consideration in grading.

Content Disclosure: Content in the arts can sometimes include works, situations, actions, and language that can be offensive to some students on the grounds of sexual explicitness, violence or blasphemy. As the College of the Arts is devoted to the principle of freedom of expression, artistic and otherwise, and it is not the college’s practice to censor these works on any of these grounds, students who might feel unduly distressed or made uncomfortable by such expressions should withdraw at the start of the term and seek another course.

Written Assignments

Playcards:

12 pt. font (Times or Calibri), double-spaced—Failure to adhere to the formatting requirements will result in a grade of 0 (zero).

Include: 1) title, 2) author name, 3) date written, 4) plot summary—do an act and scene breakdown (approx. 375-500 words), and 5) a monologue selection – include character name.

DO NOT tell me what the play is about. Note the specifics of what occurs in each act and scene. State what HAPPENS in the beginning, what EVENTS lead to the middle, what HAPPENS at the end, and how the play end as the curtain falls. Clarify the dramatic logic of the action. Be sure to introduce or describe who the characters are as you mention them in your plot summary.

The plot summary should be about 1 page -1 ½ pages (approximately 375 words) in length if done well, some classics may take a bit more space (2 page max, approximately 500 words). Playcard summaries that exceed the page/word limit will not be graded. Learn to be specific yet concise.

Type out, verbatim, the monologue you think would be one you could use in an audition. If there isn't a character that is appropriate for you, SPECIFICALLY note a pal or classmate who might be able to do the selected monologue. Consider age appropriate monologues/audition pieces.

This is an opportunity for you. Do not do a playcard for plays you are reading aloud or have read in another class nor the play you have been cast in. No musicals. No one-acts. Do NOT do a playcard for a production that you were in in the past. However, I do encourage that you be strategic.

Plagiarism is an act of academic misconduct.

Critical Assessment/Critical Thinking Papers

Critical Assessment Papers will reflect on the “Lessons of the Day” gained from class meetings. Comparisons and applications of concepts/tasks will be made between Movement Training and the acting process.

The final or concluding paragraph will restate the main points of the paper, rephrase the thesis, and end with a thought provoking statement. You are in a university and you must demonstrate university level writing skills. Expect this to be graded as an English Assignment.

Students will write in an academic manner, do NOT use the first person narrative form. Be strong and have conviction in your thoughts and work.

Papers that fail to meet the above requirements will receive a maximum grade of 75% for the assignment. Take advantage of the university writing center if you need assistance in writing.
