Fall 2017

COURSE OBJECTIVE: During the semester we will investigate the art and craft of acting on camera. We will explore various techniques and skill sets which are specific to the worlds of television and film. Some of the things we will focus on are:

Preparation
Being Present
Relaxation/Nerves
Subtext
Spontaneity
Making the camera our ally
Different Options/Takes
Sizes of Shots (Close-ups, Master Shots, etc.)
Eyelines
Continuity
Marks/Positioning
Auditioning
Comedic vs. Dramatic work

By the completion of the course the student will be expected to have displayed a working ownership of the skills presented, and to have discovered ways in which their instrument can be stretched to accommodate the needs of working in the world of television and film.

Students with Disabilities Policy:
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Honor Pledge:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scer/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor of the class
