Join today

On any given day within the studios, classrooms, and galleries of the School of Art + Art History, hundreds of Gators explore creativity and scholarship with world-class faculty. Be part of the excitement—join the Friends of Art + Art History. Our energetic social network supports these important University of Florida programs as we nurture scholarships, program support, and community patronage and participation.

Membership begins with a gift of $50 to the School of Art + Art History fund of your choice.

You not only sustain our reputation... You strengthen it.

- > The School of Art + Art History faculty is committed to cultivating an environment of diversity, discovery, and artistic excellence.
- > The School supports five on- and off-campus galleries that offer hands-on internship opportunities.
- > First semester studio art majors are immersed in critical thinking and conceptual development through the WARP (Workshop for Art Research and Practice) program.
- > Students have the opportunity to participate in several annual trips such as ones to New York City, Atlanta and Art Basel in Miami.

I gave because art and art history changes how we see the world around us.

—Dennis Campay, Founder of the Dennis and Colette Campay Studio Art Scholarship
