

On the Interplay of Cognition, Movement & Imagination

MARCH 30-APRIL 4, 2015

How do biology, psychology, dance and the visual arts intersect? Explore how with Nicky Clayton, Professor of Comparative Cognition in the Department of Psychology at Cambridge University, and tango partner, Clive Wilkins, Writer and Artist-In-Residence at Cambridge University.

All UF campus events are free and open to the public.

MONDAY, MARCH 30 | 10 AM

“CREATIVE NAVIGATOR’S LENS”

UF CAMPUS, CARR HALL, ROOM 222

Nicky Clayton and Clive Wilkins discuss the use of the arts to highlight and add meaning to science.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31 | 3:30 PM

“THE EVOLUTION OF SHOPPING LISTS”

UF CAMPUS, BARTRAM HALL, ROOM 211

In this lecture, Nicky Clayton argues that humans are not the only ones capable of prospective cognition.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1 | 6:15 PM

“THE SPOON LECTURE”

UF CAMPUS, BARTRAM HALL, ROOM 211

Nicky Clayton and Clive Wilkins examine mental time travel and cognitive mechanisms for making sense of the world around us.

THURSDAY, APRIL 2 | 4:05 PM

“WAYS OF THINKING: FROM CROWS TO CHILDREN AND BACK AGAIN”

UF CAMPUS, PHYSICS BUILDING, CONFERENCE ROOM 2205

In this lecture, Nicky Clayton discusses cognitive milestones and research on developmental cognition.

THURSDAY, APRIL 2 | 6:15 PM

“AN ARTIST’S LIFE”

UF CAMPUS, FINE ARTS BUILDING B, ROOM 103

In this lecture, Clive Wilkins explores the nature of imagination and creativity, and questions aspects of consciousness and reality amidst the miasma of being, with special reference to his newly published book The Moustachio Quartet.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3 | 8-11 PM

“FIRST FRIDAY PAPIRUSA MONTHLY MILONGA”

THE MOVEMENT (1212 N. MAIN ST., GAINESVILLE, FL)

Community tango event featuring DJ Prabir Barooah ($10). Pre-milonga lesson from 8-8:30 pm taught by Andrea Pham.

SATURDAY, APRIL 4 | 1-4:30 PM

“CONVERSATIONS WITHOUT WORDS: TANGO, CONTACT AND COMMUNICATION”

HARN MUSEUM OF ART, AUDITORIUM

At 1 pm, join Argentine tango partners, Nicky Clayton and Clive Wilkins as they encourage us to rethink communication in a TED Talk-style discussion. UF respondents Andrea Pham, Joan Frosch and Nita Little will stimulate lively discussion. From 2:30-4:30 pm, a reception and Tango Tea Dance (milonga) features music by DJ Steve Littler and informal tango lessons. No partner required.

creativecampus.ufl.edu

Made possible through funding from the University of Florida Creative Campus Committee and the Catalyst Fund.