IMAGE/ORDER/IDEA OBJECTIVE:

This course is concerned with introducing and exploring the concepts of photographic series and sequences while further improving student’s technical abilities both in and out of the darkroom. This will be accomplished thorough in-class activities, assignments, lectures, technical demos, readings, viewings and discussions focused on or related to these concepts.

Students will hone their skills in black and white exposure, development, and printing skills along with the introduction of digital shooting, scanning, basic image manipulation, and printing. The concluding project for the course will include the production of a digitally edited and printed photo book that will accompany a final print portfolio or installation.

For the first part of the semester specific problems will be presented to challenge and expand understanding of the relationships between multiple images presented as a cohesive set. The final portion of this course will be dedicated to work on a self-directed individual project that deals with the themes presented in the initial assignments, projects and readings. In addition, throughout this course students will be introduced to work by contemporary artists and examine critical issues in photography and film.

Critiques and verbal participation are an essential element of this course. Through the semester, you will develop critical abilities that will refine your ideas and strengthen your awareness and understanding of the linkages that can be made across and between images. Active participation is essential and will allow you to respond more effectively to the work of your classmates.

Specific criteria for grading will be listed on each assignment sheet but will equally consider: adherence to the assignment parameters, research/studio practice, concept development, formal resolution, and craft/presentation. Late projects will be graded down a letter grade for each day they are late.

Generally project grades in this course are considered in the following way:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Score</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>Exceptional work, all criteria of assignment were surpassed in a distinguished manner and solutions to problems presented exhibit a depth of understanding. In addition, student is engaged in exceptional studio practice, which includes active research, looking up artists recommended, asking relevant questions about other artists’ works or ideas, and being thoroughly engaged in the course content.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>3.67</td>
<td>Well-presented, superior work: all criteria of assignment were surpassed in a distinguished manner (including exceptional studio practice highlighted above). Minimal improvements could be made to the project overall.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>3.33</td>
<td>Very good work: all criteria of assignment were surpassed, minor changes could be considered and executed to bring piece together and studio practice was exceptional.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>3.0</td>
<td>Very good work: above average solutions and clear potential. Most criteria of assignment were surpassed with some improvements to be made. Execution was well done. Studio practice during the project was commendable.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-</td>
<td>2.67</td>
<td>Good work: most criteria of assignment were met. Work showed promise with a few significant improvements to be made. Studio practice was adequate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C+</td>
<td>2.33</td>
<td>Slightly above average: work, most of the criteria of the assignment were met. The work is not yet a unified whole or cohesive statement, yet effort was made. Studio practice was adequate, but could be more reflective and thoughtful.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>2.0</td>
<td>Average work: the assignment directions were followed and the requirements were met in a relatively routine way. Slippage in levels of craft, originality and presentation-studio practice was adequate, but could be more reflective and thoughtful.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C-</td>
<td>1.33</td>
<td>Below average work: an attempt to solve the problem was made, but there is much room for improving skills and developing your concepts further. The criteria of the assignment are barely met. Basic craftsmanship skills have been neglected and there is a lack of breadth and depth of idea development. There is minimal evidence of studio practice, but the quality and quantity is lacking.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>1.0</td>
<td>Inadequate, below average work: the requirements of the assignment are not addressed. The execution of the work is careless and represents an incomplete effort. Work is substandard. There is little or no evidence of studio practice.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D-</td>
<td>0.67</td>
<td>Unacceptable work and effort: the requirements of the assignment are not addressed. The execution of the work is careless and represents an incomplete effort. Work is substandard. There is little or no evidence of studio practice.</td>

IMAGE/ORDER/IDEA STUDIO ATTENDANCE AND EXPECTATIONS:

ATTENDANCE: Students are expected to attend all classes. You are required to work/participate the duration of the scheduled class period. Full participation by showing completed work during all scheduled critiques is required along with active participation through shared ideas and commentary.

Unexcused absences will affect your final grade (at the instructor’s discretion). Absences will be counted from the first class meeting onward. Appropriate documentation from the student health service should be obtained for medical excuses. In general, acceptable reasons for absence from class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other sound reasons may be offered.

If an absence occurs it is the student’s responsibility to make up all work. Students should check with the instructor or another student outside of class time when they miss a class (prior to missing the class if possible), as in- and out-of-class exercises are spontaneously assigned. Students should bring a doctor’s note for any class from which they expect to be excused. Please address any concerns, problems, and questions regarding this class to the instructor as they arise.

TARDINESS: Arrival to class fifteen minutes after start of class will be noted and three such incidences will count as one absence. Leaving early from class will be considered an absence, and will be counted as such.

Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Students who do not attend at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which they are registered, and who have not contacted the department to indicate their intent, may be dropped from the course. The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors may prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences. Three unexcused absences will reduce your attendance grade to zero percent.

LATE WORK: All projects, reading responses, and research projects must be completed on time for full credit. Specific due dates are stated on each project sheet and are announced in class. Failure to complete any project on time will result in a drop of one full letter grade, and failure to complete any other assignment, in-class exercises, or other class work, on time will result in a drop of ½ letter grade for each day it is late. If the time line states that a project is due at the beginning of class, turning it in at the end or after class is considered late. You must have work finished before the start of class on critique days or your work will not be critiqued and your project grade will be lowered. It is the student’s responsibility to turn in all work on time. Full participation by showing completed work during all critiques is required along with active participation through shared ideas and commentary. If a student is absent during a project critique, points will also be deducted from the grade of that project.
CLASS COMMUNICATIONS: Students must check their school email accounts regularly. Students are responsible for any information, deadlines, and updates emailed to their webmail accounts.

CELL PHONES: Students in the School of Art and Art History will not be permitted to have cell phones turned on in class. If it beeps, chimes, rings or makes any type of noise, turn it off before entering the classroom. Continuous cell phone disruptions will result in lowered grades.

UNIVERSITY POLICY FOR RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS: The Board of Regents and state law govern university policy regarding observance of religious holidays: Students, upon prior notification of their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances. Further, a student who is to be excused from class for a religious holy day is not required to provide a second party certification of the reasons for the absence.

UNIVERSITY ILLNESS POLICY: Students who are absent from classes or examinations because of illness should contact their professors. If you’re unable to attend class due to illness, please email the teacher prior to class meeting time. Please state your name, class, as well as the reason you will not be attending class that day.

EVALUATIONS: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.
