UF COURSE CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION:
The discipline and the creative process of acting: formal and improvisational techniques for developing vocal, physical and analytical skills.

OBJECTIVES: HAVE FUN!

- Students will demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, methodologies, and theories used within the discipline of acting.
- Students will communicate knowledge, ideas, and reasoning clearly and effectively in written or oral forms appropriate to the discipline of acting.
- Students will analyze information carefully and logically from multiple perspectives, using acting-specific methods, and develop reasoned solutions to problems.

REQUIRED TEXTS:
Although there is no required text for this course, there may be assigned readings and handouts for which you will be responsible. In addition, you will be responsible for finding and/or reading plays for class material (monologues and scenes.) that must be approved by the instructor. All class material must come from published plays.

REQUIRED VIEWING:

PETER AND THE STAR CATCHER September 2-27
THE GOLDEN DRAGON October 1-11
THE DROWSY CHAPERONE October 16-29

You will receive coupons to purchase discounted tickets for $2.00. Do not lose the coupons. They cannot be replaced.

Keep your ticket stub and give it to your instructor.

There will be a quiz given in class on the Monday immediately following the final performance of a production. The questions will relate to the specific production (not just the play).

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Attendance will be taken daily. Due to the participatory nature of this course, attendance is mandatory. You are expected to be in class on time and ready to work. You are allowed three unexcused absences. If more than three absences occur, 30 points will be deducted from your final grade for each additional absence. Please use these allowed absences wisely as absolutely no exceptions will be made. In order for an absence to be excused, you must turn in the proper written documentation in a timely fashion (i.e., team travel, band, academic field trips, doctor’s excuse, etc.)
In addition to 2 unexcused absences, you will be allowed 2 late arrivals. Upon your 3rd late arrival, 30 points will be deducted from your final grade. (In other words, three tardy arrivals equal one absence.) Please note that it is your responsibility to notify me after class that you arrived late. If you come in late and I'm unaware, you will receive an absence for that day.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS
No late or make-up assignments will be accepted without an excused absence. In the event of an excused absence, late assignments will be accepted or performed no later than one class period after the date on which it was due.

DRESS CODE
Dress appropriately for an acting class. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes that allow you to move with ease. On final performance days, appropriate professional attire and/or costume are required.

EXPECTATIONS REGARDING PREPARATION:
It should go without saying, but all final showings of monologues and scenes should include full memorization of script, costuming and set blocking. In the work sessions prior to final showings, there will be an escalating level of expectation regarding memorization/preparation.

There will be written assignments for monologues and scenes due on your workshop day.

GRADING BREAKDOWN:

CLASS DECORUM

This class is of an exploratory and experimental nature. Exercises require full participation and often a sense of humor and a sense of “play”. In order to foster a trusting and creative environment, respect of the instructor and of fellow students is essential. Please feel free to see me with any reservations you may have about the explorations in this class.

Also, respect your classmates as you would have them respect you. Give your full attention to your classmates as they work. There will be zero tolerance of cell phone use (including texting), sleeping, eating, drinking, doing work for other classes, reading, or disruptive talking in class. If you engage in any of these behaviors, your overall final grade will be reduced by 20 points for each offense.

Notes must be taken by hand. No laptops, tablet computers, or other electronic devices can be open once class has begun.

No food or drink is allowed in the classroom. Water only is permitted!

HONOR CODE:
As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement:

“I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.”

If you cheat on a test or quiz, or plagiarize material, i.e., use someone else's words or ideas without attribution, you will automatically receive a failing grade in this class. Ignorance of the definition of plagiarism or the absence of intent to deceive does not constitute an acceptable defense in matters of scholarly dishonesty.
