COURSE DESCRIPTION

The New Music Ensemble's primary tasks are to perform high quality repertoire, and to promote the workshop and performance of student compositions.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

We will offer one concert of music by established composers, and one reading session of student works.

GRADING SYSTEM

Grading Scale:

A	95 – 100
A-	90 – 94
B+	87 – 89
B	84 – 86
B-	80 – 83
C+	77 – 79
C	74 – 76
C-	70 – 73
D+	67 – 69
D	64 – 66
D-	60 – 63
E	0 – 59

Unexcused absences will affect your overall grade in the following way:

- For each unexcused absence, your final grade will be reduced by 5 percentage points.
 - If you must miss a rehearsal and have an acceptable excuse (e.g., out of town for professional obligation), you must notify me at least 24 hours in advance of the absence in order to be credited with an unexcused absence.
 - If you miss a rehearsal due to illness or some other unavoidable emergency, please notify me via email within 24 hours of the missed class session to avoid being credited with an unexcused absence.
 - Please be on time to rehearsal.
 - Exceptions to the policies stated above are at my discretion.

Resources for Students

- Instructor – Please feel free to approach me with any questions you have. My office hours are detailed above and I am available by appointment.
- Music Library – UFL Libraries give students access to a number of resources that will be essential for the course. Please familiarize yourself with how to use the resources below and feel free to ask for my help.
 - Catalogue – scores, recordings, and texts
 - JSTOR – online database of journals
- Students requesting accommodations due to disabilities must register with the Dean of Students Office. The DOS office will provide documentation to the student, who must then provide the documentation to the instructor when requesting said accommodation. To request classroom accommodations, contact the Assistant Dean of Students/Director of the Disability Resources Program at P202 Peabody Hall or phone 392.12.61 (V), 392.3008 (TDD).
