Fall 2016 Special Topics Studio

Course Number: ART 3807C, 038E
Meeting Times/ Location: TR 8-10 / FAD329
Instructor: Dr. Craig Smith (c.smith@ufl.edu)
Graduate Teaching Assistant: Ms. Molly Edwards
Office Hours/ Office Location: TR 11/ FAD335 or pre-arranged meeting location.

Course Description and Goals

This multidisciplinary studio course will introduce and develop student's knowledge of theories, histories, technologies, and aesthetics concerning the relationship of sound and image in contemporary art installations and projects. Students will create a series of "major" projects over the course of the semester with regular intervals of critiques and reviews scheduled to support the development of your project's topics through research, technical skills, and exhibition creation.

Students will present completed, original, individually or collaboratively authored work in group critiques and must be active in discussion of their own work and the work of their student peers. Students will participate in no fewer than three work in progress discussions with their peers.

Grading Policies:

While group work will be encouraged on this course, every student will receive an individual grade for all assigned activities and project reviews/ crits. Percentages of the semester average are given with each assignment, for example (10%) is ten percent of the semester average. The total of all assignments on the schedule is 100%.

Each grade is assigned based on A: class and group participation, B: on-time completion of all assigned materials and methods, C: continued development of each project step and summary towards the completion of the project based on feedback from the instructor, ie following up recommendations for research and project materials., D: each assignment's clarity, material specificity, and method.

Letter Grade % GPA Equivalency

Missing Critiques/ Make-Up Policy:

Group critiques cannot be rescheduled. There will be no opportunity to make-up discussions that are missed, nor any presentation that is missed during class-time.

Class Demeanor Policy:

Students are expected to contribute in a positive and constructive manner. Any student purposely affecting the course negatively or another student negatively will be asked to leave the course and will be reported to appropriate university administration. The instructor anticipates that all students on this course will be supportive of one-another and patient with the difficult material they are engaging. Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. In order to assure that all students have the opportunity to gain from time spent in class, unless otherwise approved by the instructor, students are prohibited from engaging in any form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result, minimally, in a request to leave class. If you have questions about appropriate classroom demeanor please notify the instructor.

Excused/unexcused absences/ arriving late to class: Any excused absence must be documented by a doctor's note and a copy of this note provided to the instructor. Unexcused absences will incur a five percent grade penalty per incident. Late arrivals to class will be treated as unexcused absences and will incur a five percent grade penalty per incident.

Mobile phones:

Cell phones and laptops may be used for class work including image production and visual research. Using phones, laptops, or other devices for social or non- course related business will result in the loss of the student's privilege to bring their laptop or phone to the class lecture or other class meeting. Please use discretion with your phones, especially during lectures and student presentations. NO CELL PHONES ARE TO BE ON OR TO BE IN USE DURING CRITIQUES unless there is a media specific component in your project that utilizes a mobile phone, tablet, etc.

Late assignments: Please see Make-Up Policy above.

Food/drink:

Food and drink are not allowed in the photography lab areas at any time. This includes water! There is a cart outside of the Fawbush Lab and Wet Darkroom doors where students can store food and drink when working in the labs.

Drinks such as water, coffee, or soft drinks may be brought to the classroom FAD329 during class time. PLEASE USE TRASH AND RECYCLE BINS to dispose of your bottles, cans, etc.

Student Accommodation:

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.
