OBJECTIVES: The goals of this course are to prepare and perform appropriate choral literature at the highest possible level, and to represent the UF School of Music in public performance. In the process, students will learn proper and healthy singing techniques, musical terms, and choral concepts.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

- This is a non-auditioned course and all interested female singers may enroll.
- Attendance is crucial to the success of the class as a whole (see “Grading” below).
- Professional behavior, proper attitude, and full participation are expected at all times.
- No food, drink (other than water), or gum chewing are allowed during class.
- Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

TEXT and MATERIALS:

- No textbook is required for this course, however, students must use a black folder. Highly recommended is THE black folder (www.musicfolder.com—Deluxe, Standard, or Choralex Compact).
- Concert dress is all-black: short or long sleeves, pants or long skirts. No shiny jewelry, watches, or reflective materials are permitted. Please see the instructor with specific questions.
- You are NOT required to dress in concert attire for dress rehearsals, only concerts.
- You are required to have your black folder and all necessary music at ALL rehearsals and performances.

GRADING:

- The final grade will be determined based primarily on student attendance. Attitude and participation will be considered along with attendance.
- Students should plan to attend every rehearsal. If a student is ill, she should make every effort to attend rehearsal and follow along, even if she is not able to sing.
- Any unexcused absence will result in a 1/3 letter grade deduction (ex. A- becomes B+).
- It will be counted as one absence if a student is late three times. Class begins when the instructor begins warm-up exercises. Exceptions may be made for extenuating circumstances.
- Students have a maximum of one week after an absence (or one week after the last missed class if it is an extended absence) to contact the instructor in order to be excused.
- A doctor’s note may be required to excuse illness.
- Unexcused absence from any scheduled performance will result in a grade no higher than “C.” Depending upon the number of scheduled performances, absence may result in failure for the semester.
- Unexcused absence from a designated dress rehearsal will result in a one-letter grade reduction.
- Tardiness to a dress rehearsal or warm-up for a performance will result in the loss of 1/3 of a letter grade.
- Leaving after a concert before the stage is cleared and all equipment is put away will result in the loss of one letter grade.
- Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.
- If a student has any potential conflicts with any performances or dress rehearsals, she should contact the instructor during the first week of classes or as soon as possible after becoming aware of the conflict.
- UF’s Grading Policy may be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>.

Schedule: Regularly scheduled class sessions will always consist of a warm-up, followed by rehearsal of selected literature. The material covered in each rehearsal will depend upon the ensemble's progress during the prior rehearsal. As in any music ensemble rehearsal, there is no list of topics or assignments. Dates of performances are below.

Academic integrity: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Americans with Disabilities Act: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
