Course Description:
This course is an overview of the history of Western art from the Renaissance to the present. It aims to familiarize students with key monuments of Western art, and to give them the tools to describe, analyze, and contextualize artworks with reference to other works of art and architecture, to artworks in other media (e.g. literature or music), to religion, politics, and historical events.

Course Objectives:
- To gain familiarity with key monuments of Western art from the Renaissance to the present.
- To identify and describe familiar monuments and artworks with reference to their stylistic attributes and historical context.
- To compare and contrast familiar and/or unfamiliar monuments and artworks using the tools of formal analysis, iconographic interpretation, and in reference to relevant historical, political, religious, or sociological contexts.
- To describe and tentatively identify and contextualize unfamiliar artworks with reference to known artworks.
- To become familiar with the standard analytical tools of art historical inquiry, including formal, iconographic, and contextual analysis.

Textbook:

Requirements:
- Attendance and Participation 10%
- Section Activities 10%
- Short Paper 15%
- Midterm Exam 30%
- Final Exam 35%

One short, 3-5 page, paper will be due Thursday, October 23. For the paper you should choose a single work of art from the Harn Museum. The paper must include: a formal description and analysis of the work of art; an analysis of its iconography; and a description of the provenance of the art work (from its creation to the present), including what is known or what you would, based on your foregoing analysis, argue are the circumstances of its creation.

Exams will include slide identifications, questions that ask you to critically relate two or more art works, and longer essay questions. The final exam will include only material presented in the second half of the course. Images for exam study will be announced in advance and will be available via the E-learning site.

Email Policy

You are requested to use your UFL email as your primary email. Important information, including supplementary readings, assignments, etc., will be disseminated via the section list-serves. You are subscribed to the list-serve with your UFL email. Emails sent to the professor or to the graduate assistants will usually be returned within 48 hours.

Class Attendance/Demeanor Policy

Your attendance is mandatory. You will be required to sign in at the beginning of each lecture and section. More than three unexcused absences will result in an automatic reduction in your participation grade, for instance from A- to B+. Your active participation in the class is expected and constitutes part of your grade.

Please also see the UF attendance policy:
https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences

Deadlines and Making-Up Missed Materials

Make-up exams can only be offered to those with an excused absence. Extensions to deadlines will not be given except under exceptional circumstances. Each day late for any assignment will result in a lowered 1/3 letter grade for that assignment (A to A- for example).

Grading Scale

Grades are tabulated on a 100-point scale and a letter grade is assigned as follows:

ARH 2051 Introduction to Principles and History of Art 2
