

TPP3124: IMPROV SOC/POLIT ISSU

Spring 2017

TPP 3124 Improv for Social/Political Issues

Instructor: Nick Bublitz

Office Hours: By appointment, located 3rd Floor of McCarty Hall C

Email: nbublitz@ufl.edu

Class: Tuesday & Thursday 4:05pm-6:00pm

Room location: CON G014

Course Objectives:

- To develop, understand, and perform the fundamentals of Improvisation.
- To apply Improvisation in all facets of your life.
- To enhance listening, observation, and ensemble work with your fellow classmates

Attendance: (100 Points)

- This class is about performance – attendance is essential. You are expected to arrive ON TIME and to attend ALL classes.
- Your attendance grade is determined in the following way:
 - 0-2 absences (A grade is still possible)
 - Any more than 2 unexcused absences your grade will drop an entire letter.
- Obviously, absences will impact your participation grade as well.
 - If you have a logistical problem that is preventing you from arriving on time, you must let me know ASAP.
- Three tardies will result in an absence.
- If you have a note from a doctor, or proof of a school sponsored event (final examination, GRE) then that absence will be excused, otherwise there are NO other excuses for an absence.

Canvas

Grades, additional readings, and paper/project guidelines will be posted on the class website in Canvas. Log on to <https://lss.at.ufl.edu/> (no “www”), click the button that reads “LOG IN TO E-LEARNING,” and then enter your Gatorlink username and password. This course should appear if you are officially registered. If you require assistance, start with the UF Computing Help Desk at <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu/>. I cannot add students to Canvas

Performance Attendance/Acting Critiques: (20 Points/each)

For this class, you are REQUIRED to see 3 productions during the course of the semester.

You will write a critique on the acting performance within each production no longer than 2 pages.

The paper must be in MLA format and must include a thesis statement, supporting paragraphs followed by a conclusion. All papers are due on the class following the final performance of the production, if you are absent you must email me the paper on the day or it will be late. Failure to turn in the three papers will result in the loss of a half letter grade (ex. A to A-).

Dress Code:

Warm-ups and improv scene work can be physically demanding. Wear comfortable clothes that allow easy movement. No open-toed shoes or flip-flops are allowed. Ladies be sure to avoid dresses or skirts that will hinder your abilities to perform in class.

Class Conduct:

Classes of this size and nature demand a mutual respect to function positively. There is no eating, drinking (except water), gum chewing, cell phone use (including texting), or disruptive talking in class. (Phones should be put away at all times unless there is an emergency that you have informed me about).

Honor Code:

As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement: "I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University." If you plagiarize material, i.e., use someone else's words or ideas without attribution, you will automatically receive a failing grade in this class. Ignorance of the definition of plagiarism or the absence of intent to deceive does not constitute an acceptable defense in matters of scholarly dishonesty.

Disabilities:

To request disability accommodations, please contact and register with the Dean of Students Office. After initial arrangements are made with this office, contact this course's instructor and provide the appropriate documentation provided by the Dean of Students Office.

EVALUATIONS

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>. Your ongoing enrollment is confirmation that you understand and will comply with the requirements of this course. I reserve the right to alter this syllabus if necessary.
