COURSE DESCRIPTION

An interdisciplinary overview of the technological and cultural developments that continue to shape the modern world. Student research covers topics including telecommunications, digital and analog technologies, video games, computer-generated entertainment and the rise of social media.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

Admission to BA in DAS or Consent of Instructor.

PURPOSE OF COURSE

The focus of this course is on the ever-expanding array of relationships that constitute digital culture – international social and cultural practices, business and marketplace structures, and emerging technological forms that have resulted from the multi-faceted developments of the 20th Century.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Explain the impact and importance of pioneering individuals and cultural developments of the 20th and early 21st centuries
- Analyze the interconnectedness of technology and culture from diverse sociotechnical perspectives
- Compare and contrast how technology drives culture and vice versa
- Design and develop a research presentation that gives an in-depth look at a historical development from at least two divergent perspectives
- Interpret the ramifications of historical developments and prognosticate a future scenario wherein current technological and culture trends will have resulted in a change to a significant aspect of global culture

Course schedule:

This course incorporates lecture, and discussion, group learning projects and student-created presentations. Individual assignments will be explained in detail as the course progresses. COURSE POLICIES:

PARTICIPATION / ATTENDANCE POLICY

We value participation more than mere attendance. Each Instructor is responsible for communicating the specific details of what percentage of your grade (if any) will be assigned to participation, and how class participation will be measured and graded. Real Time [RT] interaction with your peers and the Instructor will empower you to greater achievement.

MAKE-UP POLICY

Assignments and presentations may not be submitted late. Documented emergencies or medical situations may be the only accepted reasons for an excused absence on the day of a presentation.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

COURSE TECHNOLOGY

The students will be required to have access to, and use a personal computer with the access to the Internet. Word editing software will be required for written assignments.

COURSE COMMUNICATIONS

Students can communicate directly with the Instructor regarding the course material through the course management system (CANVAS) using “Canvas Mail”.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY HONESTY POLICY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge that states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conducthonor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

DIG 3020 – Foundations of Digital Culture

CLASS DEMEANOR

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

STUDENTS REQUIRING ACCOMMODATIONS

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter that must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

NETIQUETTE COMMUNICATION COURTESY

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats, more information can be found at:

<http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>

VIDEO LECTURE CAPTURE

High-quality video lecture capture of this course is available only for enrolled students. These video captures are edited and posted within 24-48 hours of the class meeting for the benefit of the Your Own Time [YOT] students and to offer the potential for review by on-campus and Real Time [RT] on-line students. For the on-campus and RT students, watching lectures in lieu of attending and participating in class is NOT acceptable.

If you wish to access and review these videos, ask your Instructor to provide you with this semester's login information. It is not permissible to share or distribute video login information to anyone other than officially enrolled students of this course. Lecture videos can be found at <https://vimeo.com/digitalworlds>.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.
