TPP 2110 – Acting 1: Instrument and Discipline is the foundation for all performance majors and students seeking entrance into the program. This course introduces basic physical, vocal and analytical concepts; methods; vocabulary; and discipline required of the beginning actor. Students will explore the creative process through exercises in observation and awareness.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

- . A) To establish a common vocabulary that serves as a foundation for the entire acting sequence.
- . B) To increase observational skills and develop self-awareness through exercise and improvisation.
- . C) To develop in the student an understanding of the discipline of the art and to refine concentration skills necessary within that discipline.
- . D) To introduce the student to the basic methods of relaxation as well as physical and vocal freedom and control.
- . E) To develop in the student a sense of the ensemble nature of the discipline through exercise in trust and communication.

REQUIRED TEXT:

An Actor's Work. Stanislavski, Konstantine. trans. Benedetti, Jean.

Published plays and reference materials, both of which may be obtained from the campus libraries, will be utilized by the student in class. Handouts may be distributed as well.

COURSE CONTENT: Through the use of exercises, both structured and unstructured, the student will explore the basic skills of acting, which include: a repertoire of relaxation and warm-up exercises from which to build upon for use in the study of the entire acting sequence, and the development of self-awareness, imagination, the mechanics of staging, character-process, and foundational work in script analysis.

Students will be required to memorize the general vocabulary of acting through the use of the addendum to the texts and in-class exercises and explorations. A comprehensive, written vocabulary exam will be given at the end of the semester.

Execution of the basic acting skills will be demonstrated by the student in the form of in-class performances of monologues and in scene work with partners. Students are expected to be fully memorized for these performances, and will be required to submit written analysis for each performance, the content of which will vary according to the student's development of skills.
