Attendance:

The success of this course and your assigned production is based on full stage management team participation. Attendance is vital. Unexcused absences are not permitted. Each unexcused absence will lower your final grade one full letter. If you have planned absences this semester due to unavoidable conflicts, such as religious observances, you must inform me in writing by Friday, January 12, 2018. All requirements for class attendance, make-up assignments and other work in this course are consistent with university policies: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

University Policies and Additional Information:

Please view the Academic Calendar for important dates including holidays and drop/add deadlines: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/Pages/adfall1718.aspx>

Students are required to adhere to the UF Honor Code. Visit the Student Conduct and Honor Code website for policies on academic integrity and student conduct: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of the assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

If you anticipate challenges related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with me. I would like us to discuss ways to ensure your full participation in the course. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter, which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
