Catalogue Description: Systematic achievement of strength, tone, flexibility and posture for optimal physical performance in dance. May be repeated with a change of content up to six credits. Prereq or Coreq: junior or senior level dance major or instructor permission.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

♦ Learn through practice the basic principles supporting the Pilates method and apply them to Pilates mat work.

♦ Work to resolve individual alignment issues through those applications and be able to help each other find these issues.

♦ Learn basic anatomical terms and their functions that will also relate to dance technique and quality of life.

ATTIRE

☞ Form fitting dance attire. You may wear sports bras. Please wear hair to accommodate mat work (Pebbles’ pony tails work best).

EQUIPMENT

Mat required, pads and blocks. Always bring a pen and notebook for notes.

Class Attendance is mandatory - this means you are ready to begin class on time, (awake), alert & attentive throughout the class period. It would be wise to be slightly early to prepare. Perfect attendance has its own rewards 😊.

Course Policies:

SoTD Dance Attendance:

Dance Technique Class Attendance Guide:

- Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that when you enter the classroom, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class every second.
- If you are not present when attendance is taken or class begins you are marked absent.
- In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the SoTD 2016-17 Handbook (SoTD website) and included in this syllabus.

Dance Technique Class Absence Policy

- Five (5) or more absences (excused or unexcused) result in automatic failure.
- All undocumented absences are unexcused: each unexcused absence = 5 point deduction. Excused absences may include those related to illness/injury which are documented by a medical professional. Events related to family emergencies or professional obligations should be discussed with your instructor. (See Make-up Policy for more information on excused absences.)
- For your safety and the focus of the class, you may not join class if it has already started. You are late and counted absent; with instructor permission, you may observe.
- If you should leave class early, 3 points are deducted from your grade.
- If unable to dance but still attend, with instructor permission, you may ‘actively’ observe for full class credit, onetime. You will complete an assignment as assigned by the instructor due at the end of class.
- UF approved religious days are excused and do not need to be made-up. (Travel time not included.)
You are responsible for material covered during your absence.

- A MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL will not be supported without approved documentation. An Incomplete is only considered by UF Dance in extreme cases and is not available in technique classes.

UF Absence Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Make-up Policy:

Dance Technique Class – Makeup Policy

- You are responsible for all material covered during any absence
- There are no makeup options for unexcused absences
- Absences from Written Exams, Quizzes, Mid-Terms, and/or Finals may only be made up with approved documentation
- To earn credit (amount of credit determined by the instructor) for an excused absence you must do two things:
  1) Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor. If you need the original documentation, the instructor will accept copies.
  2) Make-up the class with an approved assignment submitted on the required date. If the assignment is to attend another class as a make-up, it must be the same technical level, or lower; student must request permission of that instructor.

In the UF Dance Program, three unexcused absences will reduce your grade one-letter grade (i.e., from B to C). Each subsequent unexcused absence lowers your grade by half letter grade (i.e., from C to C-). After five unexcused absences the student may not return to class and result in automatic failure of the course. A student with medical documentation may apply to UF for Medical Withdrawal.

Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scrr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/ - UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (source: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scrr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. General Notes and Policies
♣ The McGuire Theatre and Dance Pavilion is equipped with locker rooms and showers. If you bring personal items into the studio, please leave them immediately inside of the door. Do not place objects by the barres, piano or in front of the mirror, also leave the sound equipment and white board area clear.
Please respect others who might be sensitive or allergic to perfumes or scented creams or sprays.

No body or hair products that will leave a residue on the dance floor.

Please turn cell phones off, as their use during class time is taboo and the ringing annoys the heck out the instructor.

Please use instructor's e-mail address for university business only.

There is not a final exam during exam week for this class.

Dance Studio Policy is posted in each studio.

Thank you for keeping the studio clean!

Feel free to ask questions any time. There is no such thing as a silly question. I am also available before or after class. I would like for you to understand Pilates in your own bodies as well as you can so you may also be able to teach it to others. I hope you love it as much as I do. Now let's shake ourselves slim!
