COURSE DESCRIPTION
Credits: 2; Prereq: DAA 2610 or instructor permission.

This course is a continuation of the practice of composition with an emphasis on process, improvisation, movement making, and choreographic development. Students will put into practice the basic elements of compositional techniques, including: theme and variation, time and space, dynamics and energy, and develop a more sophisticated understanding of choreography. Solo and group work will be explored.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

• To provide the student with a variety of skills to generate movement and structure choreography

• To guide the student to fully develop their choreographic ideas

• To help the student build a personal ‘toolbox’ of ideas for choreography

• To develop, present, and gain feedback on solo and group work

• To expose the student to a variety of choreographers and choreographic styles

• To experience, discuss and write about professional choreography/ live dance performances

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Students must bring a notebook/ journal to every class. Notebooks will be kept for students to collect and store information, inspiration, track individual progress, and build a compositional ‘toolbox’.
CANVAS
DAA2611 is set up on Canvas (e-learning). All writing assignments and electronic communication will take place in Canvas. No hard copies will be accepted. A schedule and timeline for the course can be found on the Canvas calendar.

SUGGESTED READING
“The Creative Habit” by Twyla Tharp
“A Choreographer’s Handbook” by Jonathan Burrows
The New York Times

COURSE POLICIES

SOTD DANCE ATTENDANCE:

Dance Class Attendance Guide:
- Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that when you enter the classroom, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class every second.
- If you are not present when attendance is taken or class begins you are marked absent.
- In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in this syllabus.

Dance Technique Class Absence Policy
- Five (5) or more absences (excused or unexcused) result in automatic failure.
- All undocumented absences are unexcused: each unexcused absence = 5 point deduction. Excused absences may include those related to illness/injury that are documented by a medical professional. Events related to family emergencies or professional obligations should be discussed with your instructor. (See Make-up Policy for more information on excused absences.)
- For your safety and the focus of the class, you may not join class if it has already started. You are late and counted absent; with instructor permission, you may observe.
- If you should leave class early, 3 points are deducted from your grade.
- If unable to dance but still attend, with instructor permission, you may ‘actively’ observe for full class credit, onetime. You will complete an assignment as assigned by the instructor due at the end of class.
- UF approved religious days are excused and do not need to be made-up. (Travel time not included.) You are responsible for material covered during your absence.
- A MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL will not be supported without approved documentation. An Incomplete is only considered by UF Dance in extreme cases and is not available in technique classes.
Dress Policy
- Attire which is form fitting & suitable for movement
- No oversized clothing
- No gym shorts
- Your ankles must be visible
- Hair needs to be confined, out of the dancer’s face; essentially not a distraction to the dancer, instructor or the class (no hats)
- No large jewelry, including all non-stud earrings, necklaces & watches
- No chewing gum

Students not in compliance with the above requirements will be considered absent

UF Absence Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx
- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.

- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.

- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.

- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.

- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

PROCESS SHOWINGS

Together we will workshop compositional tools and ideas. Some of these ideas will culminate into short movement studies. Students will be encouraged to develop and present THREE movement studies throughout the semester, which will be observed by and discussed with the class. Some time will be given in-class to develop these studies, but students may need to find additional time to create. Showing dates are listed in the course timeline.

PROGRESS/ EFFORT/ COMPREHENSION/ RISK

Students are expected to be actively engaged and put forth maximum effort during class. A supportive learning environment will be facilitated and each student will be expected to contribute.

DISCUSSION BOARD

The CANVAS discussion board will serve as a vessel for sharing, observing, and responding to choreography virtually. Each student will be required to post FOUR videos throughout the semester (1 per month) of choreography (full length or excerpt) that is not their own. Included should be some background information: Choreographer, company, year and any other background information that can be provided. In addition, each student will reply to the thread of at least EIGHT posted videos- or threaded relies-, 2 per month. Detailed instructions can be found on Canvas under the DISCUSSIONS tab.
UNSHOWINGS/ UF DANCE PERFORMANCE ATTENDANCE
