Course Objective:

This semester we will explore singing for the actor. We will focus on vocal technique (breathing, engagement/support, placement), as well as incorporating acting skills into song performance (dropping in, personalization, action/intention work). We will do this using several styles of songs, ranging from American Popular Standards and Broadway’s Golden Age, up to contemporary Musical Theater and Pop songs.

By the end of the term the actor should have an expanded relationship to her/his singing voice and more freedom and tools to utilize when preparing and performing a musical piece onstage.

Weekly Schedule:

Week 1: Introduction/Intro Songs/Song Assignments
Week 2: Exploring the Lyric /Developing a Process for Working
