COURSE DESCRIPTION

Interdisciplinary Research Seminar provides diverse hands-on research projects and interactive experiences that take full advantage of emergent Augmented Reality and Virtual Reality (AR/VR) technologies. Students will investigate a variety of research applications, including augmented reality environments for healthcare, experiential learning, digital heritage and art preservation, entertainment applications. The course will also cover in-depth several AR/VR-related technologies, such as 3D scanning, sensors for natural user interaction and body tracking, devices for haptic feedback, 360 degree image acquisition and real-time augmentation, and their use in wearable and mobile devices such as head-mounted displays for AR/VR.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

None

PURPOSE OF COURSE

During this course the students will be exposed to several funded research projects at the University of Florida in various areas of research computing, including data visualization, medical applications, natural human-computer interaction, digital humanities, automobile safety and others. The students will design their own virtual environments, they will work on processing and visualizing various forms of data, they will learn how to digitize real objects using state-of-the-art 3D scanning tools, they will collect motion data from various human-computer interaction devices (such as Microsoft’s Kinect, and Haptic mouse) and use the acquired data in their individual as well as group research projects. As part of their final project the students will have to write a research paper using the standard guidelines and structure followed by popular research computing societies.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Form a research hypothesis.
2. Design a data collection study.
3. Write and IRB protocol.
4. Collect data and analyze them in the form of a research paper.

COURSE SCHEDULE:

This schedule is only a guide and is subject to change. Unless otherwise indicated, assignments and readings are due the day they are listed on the syllabus, not the following day.

FINAL PROJECT PRESENTATIONS WILL BE HELD IN CLASS ON APRIL 23 & APRIL 25.

COURSE POLICIES:

PARTICIPATION / ATTENDANCE

In our course, attendance for On-Campus and RT On-Line students is mandatory. Students are allowed three unexcused absences. If you miss more than three classes during the semester, each additional absence will lower your overall grade by 100 points. If you miss more than six classes, you will fail the course. Exempt from this policy are only those absences involving university-sponsored events, such as athletics and band, and religious holidays, family emergencies, and health issues for which you must provide appropriate documentation in advance of the absence.

DIG6840 – INTERDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH SEMINAR

Additionally, tardiness will not be tolerated. If you are tardy for three class periods, you will receive an unexcused absence.

YOT On-Line students will be expected to stay in sync with the rest of the class, and to achieve their participation portion by recording/writing their responses to course material in advance of each lecture at least once a week.

MAKE-UP POLICY

Unless discussed at least 72 hours in advance of the deadline, late assignments will not be accepted. Excluded from this policy are any assignments missed due to medical emergencies.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

COURSE TECHNOLOGY

The students will be required to have access to, and use a personal computer with the access to the Internet. Word editing software will be required for written assignments.

COURSE COMMUNICATIONS

Students can communicate directly with the Instructor regarding the course material through the course management system (CANVAS). Electronic communication must demonstrate a formal tone and style and, unless absolutely urgent, will be responded to M-F from 9 AM to 5 PM.

VIDEO LECTURE CAPTURE

High-quality video lecture capture of this course is available only for enrolled students. These video captures are edited and posted within 24-48 hours of the class meeting for the benefit of the Your Own Time [YOT] students and to offer the potential for review by on-campus and Real Time [RT] online students. For the on-campus and RT students, watching lectures in lieu of attending and participating in class is NOT acceptable.

Your Instructor will provide you with this semester's login information during the first week of class. It is not permissible to share or distribute video login information to anyone other than officially enrolled students of this course. Lecture videos can be found at <https://vimeo.com/digitalworlds>.
