Course Design

Description

Trombone Choir is a vital part of the applied trombone curriculum, allowing students to execute concepts in a group setting and participate in a chamber ensemble that requires a high level of personal ownership over individual parts. The ensemble rehearses weekly and typically performs 1-2 on and/or off campus concert per semester. Additional performances including out-of-town trips may also occur. Extra rehearsals may be scheduled leading up to significant performances.
Objectives

Acquire a high level of characteristic tone color and technical proficiency combined with a thorough knowledge of the pedagogical concepts and methods needed to instruct such proficiency to others.

Perform in public with poise and confidence

Develop evaluative skills for self-improvement

Expand the student’s general musicianship as the key to intelligent interpretation of the literature.

Acquire a broad knowledge of the instrument’s repertoire, heritage from world-class artists, and various performance styles.

Outline of Topics

Each student will be assigned an individual course of study based on his or her needs as a trombonist.

Topics will include: warm-up and fundamentals routines, scales, etudes covering concepts including legato, articulation, clefs, solo and chamber literature, and brass pedagogy.

Expectations

Rehearsals

Rehearsals will begin at the start of class time. Students should plan to arrive beforehand with enough time to unpack their horn, get situated in their seat, and warm-up. A warm-up prior to rehearsal time is strongly encouraged.

Practice

Each student is expected to practice their assigned parts. Part of the semester grade includes out-of-rehearsal progress. Many selections that we will perform can be heard on various digital platforms.

Communication

Check your UF email frequently! Email will be the primary method of communication for trombone choir information.

Grading

Semester Grade is determined by:

1. Active participation
   Open mindedness, positive attitude

2. Degree of progress
   Quantity and quality of material prepared and presented. Is there audible evidence of appropriate attention to technical and artistic issues? Of successful application of effective practice and problem-solving strategies? Of reasonable improvements from one week to the next?

3. Execution
   Playing ability, musical artistry, repertoire development

Missing a required performance may result in a fail (E) for the semester.

Legalities

Academic Honesty

Be honest in all of your academic work. Any incidents or allegations of academic dishonesty will be adjudicated by the Student Honor Court and may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.

Photo copying and copyright laws: I do not pretend to understand fine details of the copyright laws related to photocopying and I am possibly in violation on occasion. I THINK I understand the spirit of these laws: in a “nutshell” - do not photocopy published material in order to avoid purchasing what you should rightfully be purchasing. To do so is to steal from those who created the material and those who published it. These people are vital members of the same professional community as we are. Consider these things before you photocopy anything. See http://guides.uflib.ufl.edu/copyright for current UF policies and legal information.

Accommodations for students with disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
