Ligature 27: All Hands In* in UF's Gary R. Libby Gallery
February 9—23

Gainesville, Fla., February 2, 2018 — University Galleries at the University of Florida is pleased to present Ligature 27: All Hands In on display in the Gary R. Libby Gallery located on UF's campus Feb. 9 through 23. The Gary R. Libby Gallery will showcase student graphic design work juried by two visiting designers, Bryony Gomez-Palacio and Jason Murphy. An opening reception for Ligature 27: All Hands In will take place in the Gary R. Libby Gallery on Feb. 9 from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. Ligature will also be open during Art Bash, the School of Art + Art History's Annual Open House on Feb. 9.

Ligature is an annual exhibition and symposium designed and organized by the University of Florida's graphic design student group, voxGraphis. Celebrating its 27th year, the exhibition features approximately 35 pieces exhibited, ranging from posters to apps selected by the jurors from 100 submissions.

As the University of Florida's annual graphic design symposium, this event has become a gathering for alumni, designers from the community, and world-renowned artists who visit to share their insight in a rapidly changing industry. Ligature 27 is chaired by voxGraphis officers and funded by UF's Student Government, the School of Art + Art History and generous contributions from the program's alumni and friends. ### About University Galleries

University Galleries is comprised of three art galleries that play an integral role in the teaching mission of the School of Art + Art History, College of the Arts at the University of Florida, as well as serving the entire UF and Gainesville community.

University Gallery (UG) UG's primary mission is to provide the greater Gainesville community with a contemporary venue that continually explores new directions in visual art, sometimes incorporating historical perspectives as well. UG also collaborates with myriad UF colleges, community and regional entities in creating a trans-disciplinary venue for artwork that is relevant to education at UF, and the greater region.

Exhibitions feature nationally/internationally known artists in the fall, and a bi-annual studio art faculty exhibition, juried student art show, and MFA graduating thesis project exhibitions in the spring.

Gary R. Libby Gallery presents art exhibitions that are organized by graduate student curators, in conjunction with the director of the galleries, providing an opportunity for students to learn experientially about curation, exhibition design, and presentation, and visitors to view professionally presented shows that primarily feature contemporary art.

Constance and Linton Grinter Gallery of International Art presents exhibitions organized by graduate student curators, in conjunction with the director of the galleries that feature international and multicultural artworks. This venue allows graduate students to learn experientially about curation and exhibition design, and visitors to experience art and artifacts from across world cultures.
