Course Description

This arts-based and experiential course provides a personal exploration of the art of self-care for artists in healthcare. The course takes a multi-dimensional approach and emphasizes using creative approaches to self-care for arts in medicine professionals. Students will learn concepts in self-care while engaging in immersive arts experiences to revitalize themselves both professionally and personally.

This course is appropriate for graduate students and professionals of the arts, humanities, sciences, human services, and health related professions.

Objectives

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Explain the key concepts of self-care and their importance in the lives of family caregivers, professional caregivers, patients, communities and ourselves
2. Define a multi-dimensional wellness model that utilizes creative approaches to enhance one's physical, emotional, intellectual, spiritual, social/cultural environmental, occupational and environmental health
3. Articulate how creativity and the arts can enhance one's self-care within a multi-dimensional wellness model
4. Enhance their current creative practice to further sustain and revitalize themselves both personally and professionally
5. Plan and facilitate self-care programs for family caregivers, professional caregivers, patients, communities and the general public

Class Participation and Late Assignments

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

UF Policies

Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge, which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.
