Description

This studio course covers the fundamentals of silkscreen printmaking. Through exposure to the technical aspects of this print medium and research into the historical and contemporary applications of this medium participants will expand their current studio practice. Individual conceptual ideas will be explored throughout the semester.

Objectives

Student will learn and utilize the technical applications of silkscreen printmaking and will develop an understanding of paper handling, printing, as it occurs in editioning and printed variants. Students will learn the safe use and handling of the materials and equipment used in the printmaking studio. Implement good formal strategies including design, color and mark making. Students will analyze prints through critiques, class discussions, and individual presentations during class.

Methods of Instruction

This course is structured through demonstrations, critiques, lectures, discussions, research, and individual guidance. A large amount of class time will be utilized for studio work. Come to class prepared. Studio availability is limited, so it is in your best interest to be productive during appointed class hours. Out of class work will be required for research, exercises, group projects, readings, and assignments.

Contacting the Instructor

I will respond to emails within 48 hours. My email is listed at the top of the page.

Attendance and Participation

Each student is allowed 3 absences during the semester. These are given for emergency purposes. If you exceed 3 absences for any reason your grade will reflect as follows:

4 absences = highest grade is a B+

5 absences = highest grade is a C+

6 absences = highest grade is a D+

7 absences = automatic failure

2 tardies = one absence

Attendance and participation is very important. Unlike a lecture class where a student is expected to absorb a specific group of knowledge with a test being the measure of competency, studio courses requires your active participation in every class. Each day we are not only learning new information, but also engaging in demos, assignments, group discussions, and many other activities that cannot be repeated or made up. For this reason, there will be a sign in/sign out sheet that each student will be required to fill out every class. If a student misses a class, he or she must provide official documentation to be excused. Please remember that you need a minimum grade of a C for this course to count towards your major, if you get anything lower than a C you have to retake the course.

You are expected to:

- Attend class; attendance is mandatory and any absences will affect your performance. Your final grade will be lowered one letter grade by 1 unexcused absences.
- Arrive to the class on time; being late three times makes one unexcused absence. You must stay for the entire class period. If you leave early it will count as an unexcused absence.
- Clean up your mess; in particular the printmaking studio is a common space for several classes, so cleaning after yourself is crucial.
- Come to the class prepared; there is no way to work in the printmaking studio without certain materials.
- Follow all safety procedures as demonstrated at the beginning of the semester. If you are uncertain as to what to do in a certain situation consult me.
- Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu> Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester. You will be notified of the specific times when it is open.

Participation:

Your participation in class is imperative to successful completion of the course. I expect everyone to be present both physically and mentally during discussions, demos, and critiques/reviews. I expect all students to be courteous and considerate while working together in the classroom. Proper studio etiquette is imperative when working in large groups.

Late Work:

Work submitted any time after the due date will be graded down one letter grade per class meeting. An assignment more than 3 days late will receive an E. Any assignments not completed by the end of the semester will result in course failure. No work resubmission will be accepted.

GRADE EXPLANATION

A - Superlative work: careful attention to craft and presentation. Originality of idea and execution work together. Goes beyond merely solving the problem – one who performs at this level is visibly outstanding, work is outstanding in every respect.

A-/B+ - Very fine work: almost superlative. A few minor changes could have been considered and executed to bring the piece together. Again, goes beyond merely solving the problem.

B - Above average: solution to the problem and idea well planned. Execution is well done. This is an honorable grade.

B-/C+ - A bit above average: slipping in levels of originality, craft, and presentation. The piece does not work well as a unified whole or statement, yet effort was made.

C - You have solved the problem, the requirements of the problem are met in a relatively routine way.

C-/D+ - You have solved the problem but there is much room for improving your skills and further developing your concepts. You have neglected the basic craftsmanship skills and breadth and the depth of idea development.

D - Inadequate work: the requirements of the problem are not addressed. The piece represents careless and/ or incomplete effort. Work is substandard.

F - Unacceptable work and effort
