JOURNAL

All students taking applied organ lessons are encouraged to record their progress in a “Goal Journal.” This journal will list daily, as well as long-term goals. Entries in your journal will be a constant reminder to keep you focused on your short- and long-term goals. Maintain a separate notebook for this journal and be prepared to bring it to each lesson! Seven areas should be recorded:

- 1) Long-range Goals --- Five to Ten Years
- 2) Medium-range Goals --- One to Five Years
- 3) Short-range Goals --- Two to Fifteen Weeks
- 4) This Week’s Goals
- 5) Today’s Goals
- 6) Next Week’s Goals
- 7) Practice Log

*As time goes by and various goals are met -- make sure to keep your journal up to date. Add new pages -- put a line through goals that have been achieved -- but don’t throw out your old lists.

*Your long-term goals may change -- update them. This journal is for your use and growth. Items #3, #4, #5, and #7 are the goals that will allow us to use your lesson time most efficiently. If these goals are clear, you will find that you will soon be identifying the problem areas and making progress toward solving them. Bring your journal to your lesson every week.

For more information about journals and their effectiveness, read The Inner Game of Music, by Barry Green with W. Timothy Gallwey (Doubleday, 1986). While the entire book is useful for music performance, chapter 5, entitled “The Power of Will” can encourage all of us to use our time wisely.

WEEKLY LESSON GRADE

The following elements will be assessed to determine the weekly lesson grade:

- 1) Attendance at weekly lesson
- 2) Progress on assigned literature and exercises
- 3) Development of technique

PRACTICE HOURS

Harpichord practice time in the organ/harpichord studio is available for all students and will be coordinated through the instructor. Please keep track of practice hours in your journal. Try to schedule consistent practice throughout the week. To truly see improvement, daily practice is essential!

Practice session protocol:

- 1) Utilize your assigned time. If you have a consistent conflict and need to reschedule, please notify me so that an up-to-date schedule can be reprinted.
- 2) Open times on the schedule are on a first-come, first-served basis.
- 3) If someone is practicing during your scheduled time, don't be afraid to politely enter the practice area to begin your session!
- 4) If someone is not using their posted time (surely, this won't happen), the practice time is forfeited and the facility is open for use by others.
- 5) Be sure to properly disengage harpichord stops and turn out all lights as you leave the studio!

JURY

All harpichord students will be expected to perform a jury at the end of the semester at a mutually agreeable time. Keyboard faculty will be invited to attend. Literature will be determined in consultation with the instructor. Jury sheets will be supplied by the instructor and must be completed prior to performance.

PORTFOLIO

At the end of the semester, all students will be required to turn in a "portfolio" that outlines the achievements of the semester. The portfolio will contain the following items:

- 1) student journal and/or practice chart
- 2) repertoire sheet
 - a. don't forget to list date of performance in studio or recital
 - b. if you have prior study on the carillon, please make this a cumulative repertoire sheet!

PERFORMANCE

Harpichord students are invited to perform in organ studio class when literature is performance ready. Please be prepared to share information about your piece and composer when you perform. If practical, additional performance opportunities may be arranged.

ACCOMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation.
