COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

The goal of advanced painting and printmaking is to give you an opportunity to develop a body of work that represents the culmination of your undergraduate studies in the studio arts. Considerable attention will be given to the articulation and refinement of each artist's individual voice. Critical thinking that embraces both studio practice and theoretical research will be emphasized and sensitively balanced. You are expected to be self-motivated and do serious critical research as it relates to your painting and printmaking. This is essential to allow your work grow and develop. It's also a requirement for acceptance into graduate schools. At regular interviews during the semester, you will be asked to share this research with the class during our critique sessions. In addition, each student is expected to keep an ongoing studio practice that involves consistently working on paintings and prints during class times, as well as committing a considerable amount of after-hours time. The overall goal is to have a coherent body of work by the end of the semester. Toward the end of the second semester, advanced painting and printmaking students who will be graduating are expected to have a solo show. This is an important requirement for a BFA degree. The show will reflect a summation of your studies at UF.

REQUIRED READING

What is Painting / Representation in Modern Art by Julian Bell painters

This is required reading for the course. You are expected to read and reread this book during the semester. By the end of the semester you should be familiar with all the concepts discussed in the book. We will often refer to this book in our critique discussions.

How to See / David Salle / ISBN 13-978-0393354966 painters & printmakers

Writing The Artist Statement by Ariane Goodwin ISBN 0-7414-0843-0 painters & printmakers

EVALUATION PERIODS AND CRITICAL DATES

The course will be divided into 5 evaluation periods that will assess how your work is progressing throughout the semester. Each evaluation period will have a major group critique where you will show your work along with a typed and researched artist statement. You are required to make copies of your statements for each person in the class. The grade that you receive for each period will reflect the quality and depth of the work that you present. The criteria that I use for grading will reflect the criteria that you present to the class as the goal and intention of your work.

PERIOD 1: 1ST CRITIQUE DATE: MONDAY SEPTEMBER 10

- 1) You should have developed a clear overview of what your goals are for the semester.

- 2) You should have a completed series of drawings, as well as at least one finished painting/print. The drawings and paintings / prints should be closely related and feed off each other in a constructive way.
- 3) You will be asked to do a presentation of your work at this time for a critique by me as well as the class. Include a short statement on your work that expresses the ideas that you feel are the most important in your work. Make enough copies for the entire class.
- 4) You will be asked to respond to the specific comments about your work that are brought up in the critique.

PERIOD 2: 2ND CRITIQUE DATE: MONDAY OCTOBER 1

- 1) You should have three finished paintings / prints that conform to your main focus for the semester.
- 2) You must have a completed artist statement that has been thoroughly researched. You will be graded on the accuracy and depth of your research. Also, make enough copies of your statement for everyone in the class and list any questions that you want feedback on.
- 3) You will continue the development of your paintings / prints and drawings.

PERIOD 3: 3RD CRITIQUE DATE: MONDAY OCTOBER 29

- 1) You will do a rewrite of your artist statement incorporating the insights that you have gained from your individual critiques and group discussions.
- 2) You should have a body of paintings / prints (at least 4) that will be your final project. All of the work need not be completely done at this time, but you should be very close.

PERIOD 4: 4TH CRITIQUE DATE: MONDAY NOVEMBER 19

All of the work must be completed by the final week of class. We will have our final critique / examination on the last day of class.

- 1) At least 4-6 finished paintings / prints.
- 2) An artist statement that is clear and well written. It must be typed and you should have enough copies for the entire class.
- 3) A set of slides or digital images that reflect the work that you will be submitting for your final grade.

PERIOD 5: FINAL CRITIQUE WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 5

This critique is summation of the work you did over the semester. You should have 5-6 completely finished paintings or prints. No unfinished work will be considered for this critique. You also must submit a completed artist statement as well as a CD or thumb drive of your completed work.

EVALUATION AND GRADING

The grade that you receive for each period will reflect the quality and depth of the work that you present. The criteria that I use for grading will reflect the criteria that you present to the class as the goal and intentionality of your work. I must approve your criteria. As always this is somewhat subjective, so if you have any questions about what grade I give you, please let me know.

You are required to be on time and ready for your assigned critique days. This requires that you have your completed studio work as well as a written statement at the time of the critique. The combination of the two is considered a basic requirement to be ready. If you are not ready for the assigned critique let me know before the due date.

POLICY RELATED TO MAKE-UP EXAMS AND RESCHEDULING CRITIQUES

Make up exams and rescheduling of your assigned times will only be done with my permission. Conflicts with the deadlines from other classes will not be considered a valid excuse. It's very important that you keep your work up-to-date, so these issues don't become a problem.

METHODS OF EVALUATION AND GRADING

70% of your final grade comes from your studio work.

5% of your final grade comes from your participation in the ongoing critiques.

5% of your grade will be on the requirement to attend and write a report on two visiting artist lectures.

10% of your final grade comes from your critique statements.

10% of your final grade comes from the quality of your attendance in class.

TOTAL 100%

Your projects will be graded on the following criteria:

- 1) Your work must be submitted on time.
- 2) The appropriate amount of time should have been spent on the work.
- 3) The sense of craft and presence must be an ongoing concern.
- 4) The level of plastic intelligence in your work must be appropriate for this course. The expectations for a course like advanced painting are high.
- 5) Your written artist statement should show a consistent development in terms of critical thinking that is specific to your work. You should have a sense of the historical and theoretical framing in which the work exists.
- 6) The consistency of your class work is very important. Those who under-attend scheduled class time will be marked down during the grading process regardless of how strong their work is. There will be no exceptions to this policy

PAINTING & DRAWING AREA POLICIES

All of the following policies will be strictly adhered to in addition to the specific policies for this course.

PARTICIPATION

Participation, support and respect in all phases of this course are imperative. The class dynamic depends on your energy, initiative, attitude, productivity, and willingness to get involved in group discussion and critiques. You are expected to participate in a responsive manner during critiques. You are expected to clean up and practice safe and thoughtful use of materials, tools, and facilities.

Prepare questions, solicit responses, and encourage constructive criticism during group discussions and critiques. Consider comments (write in your notebook during discussions!) using any and all to gauge the effectiveness of your work. Examine the way in which your ideas change, evolve, and influence formal and conceptual choices in your work. Your development as an artist hinges on your ability to make effective choices and express ideas clearly.

- All grades are tabulated based on your assignment numerical grade (which is ultimately figured into a percentage) and your participation. You must speak with your instructor within one week of receiving a grade in order to dispute an assignment grade. You may speak to your instructor at any point during the semester to discuss your participation grade.

ATTENDANCE

- Roll will be taken promptly.
- Late arrivals will be marked tardy; leaving early will also be noted.
- It is your responsibility to see that the record is corrected from absence to tardy if you are late.
- Announcement changes to the course calendar, demonstrations, or general classroom critiques demand your presence: compensatory work of another kind cannot be accepted in lieu of missed instructions in the area.
- A missed class does not constitute an extension of an assignment. Missing critique makes the assignment that was under critique late. Attending class unprepared for a discussion, critique, workday, or presentation will be considered an absence. Any three late arrivals or early self-dismissals will count as one absence. You are late if you arrive after your name has been called when role is taken.
- You are expected to be on time and attend all classes. Please sign the attendance sheet at the beginning of each class.

LATE POLICY

- Assignments are due when indicated by the instructor.
- An assignment more than three class periods late will not be accepted unless arrangements have been made with the instructor.
- Any assignment not completed by the end of the semester will not be accepted unless specific arrangements have been made with the instructor.

GRADE EXPLANATION

A (4.0) A- (3.67) = Superlative work: Careful attention to craft and presentation. Intent and execution of the piece work together in significant and original way. Goes beyond merely solving the problem—one who performs at this level is visibly outstanding in every respect.

B+ (3.33) = Very fine work: Almost superlative. A few minor changes could be made to bring the piece together. Again, the work goes beyond merely solving the problem.

B (3.0) Above average

B- (2.67) to B (3.00) = Solution to the problem and idea are well planned. Execution is well done. This is an honorable grade, but could be improved with more effort.

C+(2.33) = A bit above average: Slipping in levels of originality, craft, and presentation. The piece does not work as a unified whole or statement, yet effort was made. Average work.

C (2.0) Basic average work

C- (1.67) to C (2.00) = you have solved the problem and the requirements of the project were met in a relatively routine uninspired way.

D+ (1.33) = you have solved the problem: The requirements of the problem are met in a relatively routine yet poor way. Serious improvement is required.

D (1.0) Poor work

D- (.67) Poor work

E (0) Unacceptable work and effort. E, I, NG, S, U, UF (0.00)

E (0) = Failure, unacceptable work and effort.

A “C” represents satisfactory work, regular attendance, and successful accomplishment of the course.
