Course description:

This course will introduce the fundamentals of design and composition through the art of printmaking. You will be taught the tools, materials, ideas and approaches required to move your individual studio practice forward. We will be using the specific process of Relief. This course depends upon seeing, doing and thinking, using demonstrations, exercises, your own resource book and the making of a consistent suite of fine art prints.

Objectives/ Goals:

This course is designed to help you to build your own language of images and transform them into 2 dimensional mediums. After completing this course you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a working knowledge of mark, line, shape, texture, space and engaging compositional devices.
- Students will learn how to make mock-ups and preliminary sketches and learn how to translate them into print. This will be an integral and important component of the course.
- Develop your own knowledge of print-based images as they align with your core practice.
- Students will become familiar with specific print terminology.
- Create an edition of each project and become technically proficient in producing a consistency and professionally presented hand pulled print.
- Understand the specificity and the limits of various processes.
- Collaboration is required as an integral part of this course.
- Realize the different directions and issues of contemporary art and printmaking.
- Develop a healthy and committed studio practice.
- Develop your own visual philosophy, themes and a consistent body of work to assist in your art making.
- Become open and willing to take calculated risks in an effort to move your studio practice forward.

Course Requirements, Components and Methods:

This course will be based on lectures, instructive demonstrations, fieldtrips, formal and informal critique. Furthermore, this course will demand that you work in the studio as well as do research outside the class. You are required to keep a sourcebook during the semester. This book is a part of your final grade and is a record of your ability to see, do and think.

Course Topics:

*Visual Organization...Harmony...Balance...Variety...Proportion...Dominance...Movement...Economy

*Shape Interaction...Positive and Negative

You are expected to:

- Attend class; attendance is mandatory and any absences will affect your performance. Your final grade will be lowered one letter grade by 3 unexcused absences.
- Arrive to the class on time; being late three times makes one unexcused absence. You must stay for the entire class period. If you leave early it will count as an unexcused absence.
- Clean up your mess; in particular the printmaking studio is a common space for several classes, so cleaning after yourself is crucial.
- Come to the class prepared; there is no way to work in the printmaking studio without certain materials.
- Follow all safety procedures as demonstrated at the beginning of the semester. If you are uncertain as to what to do in a certain situation consult me.

-Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu> Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester. You will be notified of the specific times when it is open.

Participation:

Your participation in class is imperative to successful completion of the course. I expect everyone to be present both physically and mentally during discussions, demos, and critiques/reviews. I expect all students to be courteous and considerate while working together in the classroom. Proper studio etiquette is imperative when working in large groups.

Late Work:

Work submitted any time after the due date will be graded down one letter grade per class meeting. An assignment more than 3 days late will receive an E. Any assignments not completed by the end of the semester will result in course failure. No work resubmission will be accepted.

Grade Explanation:

A (92-100) = Superlative work: careful attention to craft and presentation. Originality of idea and execution work together. Goes beyond merely solving the problem – one who performs at this level is visibly outstanding, work is outstanding in every respect. A- (90-91)

B+ (87-89) = Very fine work: almost superlative. A few minor changes could have been considered and executed to bring piece together. Again, goes beyond merely solving the problem.

B (80-86) = Above average: solution to the problem and idea well planned. Execution is well done. This is an honorable grade. B-(80-81)

C+ (77-79) = A bit above average: slipping in levels of originality, craft and presentation. The piece does not work well as a unified whole or statement yet effort was made.

C (76-72) = You have solved the problem: the requirements of the problem are met in a relatively routine way. C- (70-71)

D+ (67-69) = You have solved the problem but there is much room for improving your skills and developing your concepts further. You have neglected the basic craftsmanship skills and breadth and depth of idea development.

D (62-66) = Inadequate work: the requirements of the problem are not addressed. The piece represents careless and/ or incomplete effort. Work is substandard. D- (60-61)

E = Unacceptable work and effort
