Dr. Leslie Odom, Associate Professor
lodom@arts.ufl.edu
MUB 222

Spring 2019

Course Objectives
All levels of study will include the following:
- overall range up to high F; all major and minor scales with arpeggios; extended chromatic scale; scales in thirds; tone production; intonation; Exhaling and inhaling techniques

Goals
- to develop a working knowledge of the standard oboe repertoire
- to develop productive reed making skills
- to become the best possible musician

Course Content
Lessons -
The schedule for individual lessons will be finalized within the first week of the semester. Any conflicts with an assigned lesson time must be cleared with Dr. Odom at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled time. Switching lesson times with another oboe student is fine, but please leave written notice of the changes on Dr. Odom’s studio door (MUB 222). Any lessons missed by the student without prior notice will not be rescheduled. It is expected that the student will come to each lesson prepared with the assignments from the previous week. If there are questions regarding the lesson assignments, the student is encouraged to ask for clarification of the assignment before the next lesson.

Recital Policies -
Attendance is required at all oboe studio recitals (especially Dr. Odom’s solo recitals and ensemble recitals) and Woodwind Area recitals. If a studio recital must be missed, please contact Dr. Odom as soon as possible. Arrangements may be made to attend a dress rehearsal as a substitute for the performance.

Hannah Bearham March 15 5:30 p.m. MUB 101
Brittany Russell March 21 5:30 p.m. MUB 101
Jacob Hujsa March 24 3:00 p.m. MUB 101
Stefie Pishock April 6 5:30 p.m. MUB 101
Recital Performances -
All oboe students are required to perform on one of the following every semester of study: an Oboe Studio recital (usually for first semester 1000-level non-performance students), a Woodwind Area recital, or a Friday Student Recital Convocation. Lessons with pianists should occur at least 2 (two) weeks prior to each performance. It is the student’s responsibility to find a pianist and schedule with the pianist outside rehearsals as well as for lesson times. The student is responsible for paying the pianist for rehearsals and performances.

Spring 2019 Woodwind Area Recital dates (all start at 12:50 p.m. in MUB 120)
- February 11
- February 25
- March 18
- April 1 (no foolin’!)
- April 15

Studio Class -
Attendance is required at all studio class meetings. Absences will affect grades without prior excuse. Studio class will focus primarily on reed making skills. Quizzes, both written and listening, on oboe literature and repertoire will be incorporated into the semester’s schedule. It is assumed that the oboe student will have the appropriate supplies and tools at each studio meeting. A list of reed making sources is included at the end of this syllabus.

Individual Oboe Studio Notebook –
Each student will be required to prepare a studio notebook, which will contain the following items:
- lesson assignment sheets
- performance comments from Dr. Odom
- music terms and definitions, taken from repertoire studied
- 1-2 paragraphs (similar to program notes) biography of composers studied during the semester
- Practice and reed making log
- Listening log

End of Semester Juries - Woodwind Juries for spring semester 2019 will take place Monday, April 29, 2019
All oboe students are required to play a jury at the end of each semester of study, except for students who have performed a solo recital in the last 6 weeks of a semester or non-performance students taking their first semester of lessons at the 1000 level. The Jury will consist of a 10-minute prepared program. This program will include a minimum of two repertoire pieces and three etudes, which have been studied during the current semester with the studio teacher. The repertoire pieces should be of contrasting styles. Each student will present the jury with three copies of a printed program, which will include the titles of the selections to be performed, the names of the composers and their dates. In addition, the student will submit a Semester Repertoire Report, which specifies all materials studied during the current semester. The student will perform the selections in program order; however, the faculty may request the other selections listed on the program at any time during the performance.
Grade Allocation -
Grades are based on:

- 50% from - preparation for lessons and studio class, including:
  - attendance and participation in studio class
  - performances in a recital
  - 10 reeds at varying levels of completion, dependent upon the year of study:
    - 1000-level: must be tied on correctly with the tip started
    - 2000-level: must be tied on correctly with the tip almost completed and the back started
    - 3000-level: must be tied on correctly with the tip completed and the back almost finished; the reed should be able to crow
    - 4000-level and Graduate: reeds must be completed and playable (not necessarily for public use)
      (The best grades from 12 lessons, all of the grades from studio class, and the recital performance grade will be averaged together.)
- 50% from - the jury at the end of the semester.

2000-Level Juries -
This jury is to be performed at the end of the second semester of 2000-Level of study. The student must pass this jury to continue studio study at the 3000-Level of coursework. All material worked on during the semester of the jury should be at performance level for this jury. A committee of three Woodwind Area faculty members and one faculty member outside of the Woodwind Area will hear the jury. The student will prepare a three- to five-minute talk on something related to the music he/she has prepared for the jury. It may include historical background of a particular composer, an analysis on a work, or a combination of the two. The student will be judged upon his/her ability to express his/her ideas clearly to an audience.

The student may write information into his/her music to be referred to as needed. If the student is unable to pass this jury, one additional semester at the 2000-level may be taken with another jury at the end of that semester. If the student does not pass the 2000-Level jury at the second attempt, the student will not be allowed to continue study in the studio.

Disclaimer -
Course schedule and content subject to change.

Academic Honor Policy -
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
Students Requesting Accommodations due to Disabilities -
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Online Course Evaluation Process –
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.
