School of Theatre and Dance
THE 6950: Applied Theatre

MFA Acting Coordinator: Prof. Tim Altmeyer

Instructor: To Arrange. For MFA Actors, directors of productions are Instructors of Record

Meeting Times: Rehearsal times are TBA, typically 6:00-11:00pm weeknights and a four hour rehearsal during the weekend. 10 of 12 rehearsals are scheduled for tech rehearsals.

Production/rehearsal schedules will be supplied at the beginning of the rehearsal process.

Office Hours: Varies with Instructor of Record

Credits: 1-9, max 9

Prerequisites: Permission of MFA Acting Graduate Coordinator or Instructor

Course Description:

Specialized practical experience through participation in realized productions.

Purpose/Objective:

By using department production work as a learning tool, the student gains an understanding of the actor's contributions and responsibilities in production through practical application of knowledge, including an effective approach to and execution of an acting process. To evaluate the student, the instructor will consider his/her working methods, skills, progress and professional conduct in completing an assigned role in production.

Expected Outcome:

MFA Students will demonstrate artistry and professional behavior in rehearsal and production.

Attendance:

Students are expected at all rehearsals.

Tardiness will affect the final grade.

Deadlines:

Students are expected to meet all deadlines including off-book dates.

Dress:

Students are expected to dress appropriately for rehearsals in a way that allows actors to rehearse and explore specific character and scene work. It is expected that students will bring the necessary rehearsal clothes to rehearsal, including appropriate footwear, trousers/skirts, vests/jackets, and knee/elbow pads as necessary. In rare and individual circumstances, the costume shop will supply specialty pieces.

Grading/Assessment:

Students will be assessed according to the following:

- Synthesis of connections between voice, movement, and intellect/analysis in character creation
- Integration of scholarly research with creative imagination in character interpretation
- Exhibits ethical behaviors, cultural sensitivity, teamwork skills, collegiality, and communication skills

- Working relationship with Director
- Working relationship with Stage Manager and Stage Management Team
- Punctuality and attendance
- Proper Preparation (met off-book deadlines, prepared for scene work, etc.)
- Thoroughness and attention to detail
- Pleasant and cooperative attitude
- Ability to work calmly and effectively under pressure
- Ability to maintain a consistent performance
