PURPOSES AND GOALS

Graduate ensembles in the area of organ and harpsichord provide an opportunity for the student to present collaborative performances with colleagues. This course is intended to prepare the student for a successful presentation of their musical skills. The performance may include realization of figured bass and/or transcription of manuscript scores. The course will culminate with a public performance. The student is responsible for producing program information and notes.

ATTENDANCE

STUDIO AND LESSON ATTENDANCE IS REQUIRED OF ALL STUDENTS. Students preparing for recital are required to perform literature during weekly studio class. This is a time to test out registrations and become comfortable in the performance situation. If you anticipate a scheduled absence, please consider “trading” lesson times with a colleague in the studio. This will ensure that Dr. Ellis and the UMA organ will be available during the rescheduled time.

If you must be absent, please contact me prior to lesson or studio time:
Phone: 352-273-3181; E-mail: lrellis@ufl.edu

All students are encouraged to perform in studio class when literature is performance ready. Please be prepared to share information about your piece and composer when you perform.

RECITAL

The ensemble is encouraged to perform during the organ studio recital on Tuesday, April 9, 7:30PM.

COURSE EVALUATION

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>

ACCOMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel.
