Spring 2019

COURSE OBJECTIVE: During the semester we will investigate the art and craft of acting on camera. We will explore various techniques and skill sets which are specific to the worlds of television and film. Some of the things we will focus on are:

Getting comfortable with the camera
Compression
Transparency
Subtext
Continuity
Preparation
Spontaneity
Different Takes/Options
Shot sizes (long shots, mid-shots, closeups, etc.)
Eye lines
Auditioning/Self-tape
Commercials

By the completion of the course the student should have a working knowledge of these techniques. The actor should also have discovered ways in which their instrument can be stretched to accommodate the needs of working in the worlds of television and film.
