Course Description

This course offers practical experience in the use of dance to enhance health and wellbeing in a community setting. Students will volunteer with a community organization on an individually contracted basis. The specific nature of the work will be developed in alignment with the student's personal learning and career objectives and must be approved by the instructor and the host organization, including provisions for monitoring quantity and quality of work.

Prerequisites

DAN3775 Dance in Medicine and instructor permission.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, students will:

1. Identify and implement movement activities appropriate for specific health-related populations.
2. Evaluate their experience of using dance to enhance health and wellbeing.
3. Articulate an individual approach to using dance in a health context.
4. Illustrate effective communication in verbal and written form.

Course format and content

This course uses an individual contractual format for specific clinical and academic requirements. The general scope and content is as follows:

- Develop a specific contract with instructor to include: clinical activities, due dates and meetings. The specific nature of the work must be approved by the instructor and the community program should include provisions for monitoring quantity and quality of clinical work
- Complete host organization procedures (e.g. orientation, interview, training)
- Proposal: your goals and expected outcomes for your clinical work
- Documented contact hours: submit a time sheet of your clinical hours at the end of the semester signed by your Clinical Supervisor
 - 1 credit = 30 hours of clinical work
 - 2 credits = 60 hours of clinical work
 - 3 credits = 90 hours of clinical work
- Journaling: 1 page per 3 hours of clinical work
- Final paper: 1,000-1,500 word analysis of your experience

Policies

Assignments: All written assignments should be submitted via Canvas unless other arrangements have been made with the instructor.

- Late Assignment Policy: The instructor will not accept late work except in extenuating circumstances and with prior approval by the instructor.
- Source Citations: All assignments should be formatted in APA style, double spaced and 12 point font, such as Times New Roman or Cambria. Research must include a bibliography citing all sources used.

Attire: Follow the dress code requirements of the placement site. If there are no dress code requirements, follow the dress code for UF Health Shands Arts in Medicine. An AIM t-shirt can be purchased for $10 at the UF Health Shands Arts in Medicine administration office located in the UF Health Shands Cancer Hospital. If the placement site is UF Health, Volunteer Services will provide a name tag that which should be worn. Otherwise, the UF Gator One card can be worn as identification.

Communication: Each student is issued a University email address upon admittance. Students are expected to read email sent to this account on a regular basis. Failure to read and react to University communications in a timely manner does not absolve the student from knowing and complying with the content of the communication.

- Email: Email is the preferred communication method. The instructor will attempt to respond to all emails within 48 hours, excluding weekends or holidays where the time might be slightly longer.

Academic Honesty: The university's policies regarding academic honesty, the honor code, and student conduct related to the honor code will be strictly enforced. Full information regarding these policies is available at the following links:
