COURSE OBJECTIVES
Students will
• grow intellectually and musically through their study in this course
• gain an intellectual basis for understanding the development of western art music
• become familiar with a repertory of widely recognized music from the western art music tradition (from the Greeks through approximately 1600) and with its composers
• learn the major genres and stylistic conventions of western art music until 1600
• gain skills in discussing and writing about music (2000-word Gordon rule course*)
• develop critical thinking skills specific to music disciplines
• develop music listening skills
• develop skills in reading, evaluating, interpreting, and synthesizing texts, scores, primary source documents, and scholarly research
• examine the ways society and music reflect and shape one another.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:
Burkholder, J. Peter, Donald J. Grout, Claude V. Palisca. A History of Western Music, 9th ed. with accompanying Anthology, Vol. 1 (7th ed.) and CDs Vol. 1 (7th ed.). No other edition is acceptable. See website for practice quizzes, study guides, outlines, and music downloads:
http://www.wwnorton.com/college/music/grout9/

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS will be announced and may be placed on reserve in the music library or on Canvas / e-learning.

OFFICE HOURS: As above or by appointment. Please see me after class, or contact me by email to schedule appointments outside regular office hours. I am interested in your success and I enjoy getting to know you outside of class, so please stop by with questions, ideas, or just to get acquainted.

PROFESSIONALISM
Class begins promptly; come every time on time and stay the whole time. Each class will consist of discussion of readings from the textbook, listening excerpts, or score analysis from the accompanying score anthology. Students will prepare for each class by completing all assigned readings, listening, and score analysis and by reflecting intelligently and thoughtfully on the material. Students will be prepared to discuss the main concepts of the material, contribute comments, and ask questions. Be respectful of your professor and classmates. Turn off cell phones. Laptops are not permitted in class. Please do not eat in class or engage in other distracting activities.

Prompt ATTENDANCE is essential for success in the class. You are allowed 3 absences without penalty; each absence beyond 3 results in a 5-point deduction from your grade. Excessive tardiness will count as absence. Students will be responsible for all the assigned work and material covered in class regardless of attendance or punctuality. In the case of religious holidays or school-related travel, students must notify the TA one week before their absence. Students are responsible to keep track of the number of classes missed and their tardies. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of every class period.
TIPS FOR ACHIEVING SUCCESS:

• Learn from the music:
  • Study your anthology; analyze the music, look for the traits discussed in the text and in class.
  • Listen intelligently and frequently to the recordings that accompany your text, with and without scores. Use the listening sheets provided in E-Learning.
• Read each chapter, including the enrichment sections, study the accompanying scores, and listen to the appropriate musical selections before we begin discussing the material in class.
• Complete all worksheets before we begin discussing the material in class.
• Formulate your own questions as you read, and look for the answers, both in the reading and in class lectures and discussions.
• Take notes, both in class and from your reading; organize and rework these notes as a way of studying, reviewing, and synthesizing the information.
• Prepare for each day's class; review after class, preferably the same day.
• Discuss what we are studying with your colleagues. Form study groups and meet consistently.
• Participate fully in class activities; ask questions; contribute comments. Fully engage in the intellectual opportunities the class offers.
• Visit your professor and TA when you have ideas, questions, or any issue that troubles you.

EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT

Your performance in the class will be assessed according to your work on quizzes, exams, writing and analysis assignments, a performance project, and weekly worksheets. Each component for assessment relates to the course objectives listed above. You should always be aware of how your work can demonstrate your mastery of each of these objectives.

Examinations and Quizzes: Exams will consist of listening, score ID, and short answer/ID questions. Essays will be written out of class and submitted as part of the exam as well as on Turnitin.com. Short exams will not include essays. The final exam is comprehensive and may include an in-class essay. Announced or unannounced quizzes based on assigned listening and reading may also play a part in the total grade.

Assignments: Assignments and worksheets are due at the beginning of class on the day they are due. Late assignments are not acceptable. You are responsible for maintaining your computer and printer and for scheduling your workload in order to meet assignment deadlines. Assignment sheet must be paper-clipped to the assignment. Papers must be submitted in hard copy and on Turnitin. Back up all work as well as keeping a hard copy. Retain all graded assignments until the end of the term. See the schedule of topics, readings, assignments, examinations, and quizzes for further information. Read the Style Sheet, and review it each time you submit a written assignment.

Worksheets: Worksheets are available on E-learning. These worksheets are due on the first day of each new chapter and will serve as your study guides. Worksheets are not considered for Gordon Rule credit.

Enrichment: See the information sheet. These are optional activities for deeper learning and extra credit.

CANVAS

The syllabus and pertinent course information and materials will be available on Canvas. We will primarily use Files, Announcements, Assignments. I will post most of the class Powerpoints after class. Most of these will have supplemental material that we do not cover in class – additional analysis of NAWM scores, discussion questions, etc.

To submit your papers to Turnitin: Do not submit your papers directly to Turnitin.com. When you upload your paper on Canvas, it will be submitted to Turnitin. This is important; please ask your TA if you have any problems.

GRADE DISTRIBUTION: Exams: 60%  Assignments: 30%  Worksheets: 10%

Grading Scale: 94-100% = A; 91-93% = A- ; 87-90% = B+ ; 84-86% = B ; 81-83% = B- ; 77-80% = C+ ; 74-76% = C ; 71-73% = C- ; 67-70% = D+ ; 64-66% = D ; 61-63% = D- ; 60 and below = E.
UF Policies:

ACADEMIC HONESTY: No academic dishonesty will be tolerated. Plagiarism is presenting the work of another as your own. Cheating on exams and using someone else’s ideas in a written paper without providing proper recognition of the source (plagiarizing) are serious matters. As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement: “I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion for the University.” The instructor of this course fully endorses this statement and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. All violations of academic honesty will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action without exception. Strictly enforced!

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES are strongly encouraged to use the resources offered by the University of Florida Dean of Students Office to assist anyone who qualifies. Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. To learn more, see http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drp/as.htm or visit the office: Disability Resources Program, P202 Peabody Hall, Email: accessuf@dso.ufl.edu, 352-392-1261, Fax: 352-392-5566, TDD: 352-392-3008

“The Gordon Rule writing requirement is an important curricular statement in that all students must be able to express themselves appropriately through effective writing. Satisfactory completion of the Gordon Rule Writing requirement is a necessary condition for attaining this goal. Gordon Rule Objectives: First, they use writing assignments as a means to ensure students assimilate concepts explored in the courses’ content areas. Second, these courses teach students to articulate their ideas clearly in standard written English for different audiences and in different contexts.”
