GOALS AND OBJECTIVES:

A survey of music literature, styles, and techniques from ca. 1820 to the present, this course examines representative repertoire from historical, theoretical, and cultural contexts. In addition to exploring techniques for listening, we will place emphasis on building appropriate vocabulary to communicate your musical knowledge, both spoken and written (prereq.: MUT 2127, MUH 1 and 2 with grade C or better; please see me after class if you have any questions regarding these pre-requirements). Within this framework students are expected to:

- Develop critical and analytical skills.
- Apply acquired knowledge to studio repertoire.
- Write scholarly papers, paying close attention to format, grammar, and spelling.
- Read scores for style and content.

This course satisfies the humanities requirement for general education. A successful completion of the writing component (2,000 words and with a grade C or higher) also counts toward the Gordon Rule writing requirement.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:

Burkholder, J. Peter et al. A History of Western Music, 9th ed. New York: Norton, 2014.

Burkholder, J. Peter and Claude Palisca. Norton Anthology of Western Music, Vols. 2 & 3, 7th ed. New York: Norton, 2014. And accompanying CDs.

Additional reading and listening materials will be placed on reserve at the Architecture and Fine Arts Library (201 Fine Arts Building A).

REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING:

Grading will be based on the following:

Grading scale*

A-: 91-93	B: 84-87	C: 74-77	D: 64-67
	B-: 81-83	C-: 71-73	D-: 61-63

* Please keep in mind that C- is not a passing grade. Information on the conversion of grades to the University of Florida's grade point averages can be found at <http://www.isis.ufl.edu/minusgrades.html>.

Attendance

Attendance is critical because much of the course material comes directly from in-class discussions and music analyses. Attendance will be taken via short quizzes on randomly chosen days. Quizzes will be based on the assigned readings, works, or previous lectures. The overall percentage score on the quiz grades will also account for the attendance portion of your final grade (15%). Make-up quizzes will be given only for excused absences as described in the "Exams" section below. Any student missing a class for any reason is responsible for getting notes and handouts from a fellow student, not the instructor: PowerPoint lectures and class notes will not be available from the instructor.

Exams

Make-up exams are given only for excused absences. An excused absence is defined as 1) a medical issue accompanied by a signed statement from your doctor, 2) a serious family emergency with a signed statement from parent or guardian, 3) an official University of Florida activity accompanied by a signed statement from an appropriate faculty representative with a two-week prior notification to instructor, 4) a religious holiday observance with a two-week prior notification to instructor, 5) military service or court-imposed legal obligations accompanied by written proof two weeks prior to absence. Failure to appear for an exam without prior arrangement will result in an E for that exam. There will be no make-up for the final exam.

Research Paper

The Research Paper is designed to provide you with an opportunity to expand your knowledge of the covered materials through critical analysis of academic writing. It comprises three stages: a proposal with a preliminary bibliography, a draft, and a final revised version. I will distribute handouts with detailed instructions by the third week of classes. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the day they are due. A penalty of 10% per day (maximum of two days) shall apply to assignments turned in late. Thereafter, no credit will be given. All writing assignments must be submitted electronically in Canvas).

Classroom Policies

Classes will begin promptly. Students need to arrive on time, turn in assignments before sitting down, and stay for the entire class. In the rare case that you are unavoidably late, please enter quietly and take the first available seat. The period ends when the instructor dismisses the class. Preparations to leave (such as closing notebooks, rustling papers, and putting on your coat) before you are dismissed are disruptive; please avoid them. Do not exit before you are dismissed unless you have already advised the instructor that you must leave early (please do this before the period begins).

Cell Phones and Electronics

Turn off computers and cell phones. A pop quiz will be given every time a phone ring in class. Internet connectivity must be disabled if you plan on taking notes directly on your laptop. Please do not eat in class or engage in other distracting activities (Facebook can wait 50 minutes).

E-mail etiquette: All communication for this class will be made through the UF email system. Please check your UF email daily. Please make every effort to see me in person as listed above or to solve your problem using the information and resources at hand. Please do not email me for information that you can get from a classmate, but feel free to email when you require my personal attention or need to make an appointment.

Students with Disabilities

To request classroom accommodations, contact the Assistant Dean of Students/Director of the Disability Resources at www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation.

Academic Honesty (and Dishonesty)

Either you, your parents, family, or the taxpayers of Florida are paying thousands of dollars for your University of Florida education. Please do not blow off or take for granted this fantastic privilege. Cheating and/or plagiarizing the work of others are the cardinal sins of scholastic life. If you are caught, expect to be punished to the full extent of university policy, including an automatic E for the course and a referral to the Student Honor Court. Avoid any issues by doing your own work, carefully citing sources, and not making these sorts of mistakes. Upon completing the registration at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement: "I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University." See UF guidelines for academic honesty at www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr.

TIPS FOR ACHIEVING SUCCESS:

1. Learn from the music. Study your anthology, analyze the music and look for the traits discussed in the text and in class.
2. Read each chapter, study the scores, and listen to the appropriate musical selections before we begin discussing the material in class. Formulate questions as you read and look for answers.
3. Take notes, both in class and from your reading. Organize and rework these notes as a way of studying, reviewing, and synthesizing the information.
4. Participate fully in class activities, ask questions, and contribute with comments.
