Course Description

This online course explores the practice of the arts in medicine and arts in public health in the fields of health and human services. The course provides a dynamic, interdisciplinary overview of diverse practices and methodologies in the delivery of the arts in community and healthcare settings. Learning methods include reading, video lecture, online weekly discussion, research, writing, and creative practice. Students will engage in individual creative practice in a primary artistic discipline as a research and learning method.

This course is appropriate for graduate students and professionals of the arts, humanities, sciences, human services, and health related professions.
Course Objectives

- Compare clinical and community health settings such as hospitals, outpatient clinics, long term care, hospice, home care, community health clinics, health departments, schools and communities-at-large
- Describe program models in arts in healthcare and arts in community health
- Describe key considerations when navigating healthcare cultures and environments
- Differentiate factors that contribute to a positive healing environment from those that may negatively impact the healing environment
- Describe the professional competencies and scope of practice of artists in healthcare and artists in community health
- Distinguish the role of an artist in healthcare or artist in community health from the roles of allied health practitioners (i.e. social workers, creative arts therapies, child life specialists, health educators, rehabilitation therapists or occupational therapists)
- Adapt arts processes and materials to meet the specific needs of participants with infection control precautions, disabilities or developmental considerations
- Demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate care environments to ensure participant safety
- Reflect upon the patient experience
- Develop a plan for a practicum in arts in medicine and/or arts in public health
- Demonstrate a basic understanding of needs assessment, resource mapping and program planning and assessment
- Evaluate the role of the arts in promoting health education, health literacy and disease prevention in community settings
- Locate and critically assess literature that supports the arts in health
- Critically evaluate practice methods in arts in medicine and arts in public health for diverse populations

Class Participation and Late Assignments

Late assignments will receive a 5% per day late deduction when submitted within one week of the due date, after which they will receive an automatic 50% late deduction.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

UF Policies

Academic Honesty
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct
Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php.

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.
