Course Goals and Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to do the following:

- Recognize and identify administrative structures that support arts in medicine programs, specifically those at the student's practicum site.
- Demonstrate the ability to apply professional-level practices through collaboration, recognition of barriers, and implementation of decision-making and problem-solving skills in the arts in healthcare setting.
- Demonstrate advanced levels of self-directed practice evidenced by site supervisor evaluations and reporting of patient contact and administrative activities.
- Engage in critical self-reflection measured through writing and reporting assignments (Interaction Reports) and demonstrated through the development of personal approaches to arts in medicine (e.g., Discussion Board posts/comments, Creative Blog).
- Produce graduate level academic relevant to the populations at the student's Practicum Site or on a topic that the student anticipates for Capstone (MA students).

Required Texts

All course materials will be available through eLearning or accessible through the UF library system with VPN access.

Assignments

Please thoroughly read and review the all assignment specifications in the Assignments section available in the eLearning site. This will ensure you receive the most complete grade for your efforts.

Class Participation and Late Assignments

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

- Late assignments will receive a 5 percent late deduction per day for each of the first 5 days. Assignments submitted more than 5 days late may receive a flat 25% point deduction if you do not have a medical letter or a life change incident that has been approved by the Graduate Office.
- If you are out of town or have other circumstances that make it impossible for you to do assignments on time via the Internet, please talk to your instructor BEFORE the assignments are due and make arrangements to turn in those assignments early.

Missing Practicum Hours: You must complete 96 practicum hours (72 patient contact hours and 24 administrative hours). Note that if you do not reach 72 patient contact hours, your final grade for the course will be reduced by 5 points for each hour missed. If you do not reach 24 administrative hours, your final grade for the course will be reduced by 3 points for each hour missed.

Please inform instructors of extenuating circumstances as soon as possible.

UF Policies

Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565), www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.
