

CREATING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES: ARTS + PUBLIC HEALTH IN AMERICA

A national initiative led by the University of Florida

Center for Arts in Medicine in partnership with ArtPlace America

Working Group, Corvallis, OR, Oct 21, 2019

Frequently Asked Questions

When is the event? We will convene on October 21 at 8:30 am at Oregon State University CH2M Hill Alumni Center. The day's program will begin promptly at 9:00 am and will conclude at 5:00 pm.

Where is it?

Oregon State University CH2M Hill Alumni Center, 725 SW 26th Street, Corvallis OR 97331

Who will be there? There will be approximately 50 people. Our group will include practitioners, educators, researchers, policy-makers, thought leaders and other stakeholders from the arts, public health, creative placemaking and community development sectors.

What should I expect? A dynamic and interactive day of knowledge and practice sharing, provocation, embodied dialogue, and strategic visioning. The day is designed to move quickly and to draw out deep and broad thinking as well as new ideas and partnerships. We have brought together an intentionally broad range of disciplinary representation, and we want to hear from everyone. So, expect your voice to be heard. We will capture everything and create proceedings based on thematic analyses, which we will share with you.

Where will I be staying? A block of rooms with a discounted rate is available to the Hilton Garden Inn Corvallis, 2500 SW Western Blvd, Corvallis, OR 97331. Please note that while this event is free, costs for accommodations and travel are the responsibility of participants. Please reference the group name "Arts and Community Health" (code: ACH) when booking your room.

How will I get around? Hilton Garden Inn Corvallis is located across the street from the conference center. Corvallis is a highly walkable city, public transportation is free, and Lyft and Uber are available.

What should I bring? Energy, ideas and questions to provoke the deepest thought and dialogue. We will provide you with a notebook and pencil as well as with a folder of program materials.

What should I wear? Attire is business casual. We'll be on our feet for some of the time, so please wear comfortable shoes and comfortable attire. Weather conditions in Oregon in October are highly variable- cold and wet weather is no more likely than brilliant warm sunshine.

Who should I contact with Questions? If you have any questions, please contact our event coordinator Bridget Madden: bmadden@arts.ufl.edu