Catalog Description:
This course is designed to develop technical range and performance skills through the study and production of dance repertory within the experience of faculty repertory.

Course Description
This course is designed to give you an experience that prepares you for the professional dance field. Credit can be current or retroactive. Dancers in my chorographic work are collaborators in the choreography or reimagining of already existent choreography. Dancers cast in my work are expected to adapt to the physical and philosophical demands of my particular aesthetic and the particular dance. You will collaborate and experiment in these areas: movement invention/vocabulary, theatrical expression (may include talking, singing, manipulation of props), and performance quality. This process culminates with the performance of a dance work in a UF Dance Program performance.

Expectations and Grading Criteria
- Please be prompt and on time to rehearsals warm up, review choreography, and be physically and mentally prepared to dance. I should never have to encourage or ask for any this kind of preparation.
- Please conduct yourself in a professional and courteous manner which includes:
  - Limited conversation – all conversations should be related to the actual rehearsal.
  - Working only on material that is related to the choreography (no comp assignments or other peoples’ work).
  - Staying active and involved in the process—no lying down, sleeping, or isolating one’s self from the group/class community.
- Please do not miss rehearsal except under the extreme exceptions of personal emergency or sickness (fever, vomiting, flu).
- In order to perform the work, you must be present at all spacing and technical rehearsals on stage as well as on time for call during performance week.
- If you do miss rehearsal, please contact me immediately by phone or e-mail. My cell phone is 217-390-0016. More than one missed rehearsal may result in your removal from the piece as will not notifying me. Do not test this.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
- To expand the dancer’s expressive and qualitative range of movement and performance.
- To develop musicality, dynamics, clarity and articulation in time and space.
- To expose the student to unique and specific approaches to the creative process.
- To provide the student with experiences that reinforce discipline and strengthen their sense of responsibility within a pre-professional creative environment.
- To relate the student’s work in technique class to a rehearsal context.
- To gain experience and develop an understanding of how to work in an ensemble.
- To empower the person/dancer/thinker/choreographer in each student.
DRESS POLICY:
Attire in class should be neat, clean and allow for clear execution and observation of alignment and movement. Hair should be secured to allow for full and vigorous moving. Please do not wear watches or jewelry that might be harmful or inhibit movement.

Course Policies:
SoTD Dance Attendance

Dance Technique Class Attendance Guide
- Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that upon entering the classroom, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class consistently.
- In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the SoTD 2019-20 Handbook (SoTD website) and included in this syllabus.

Dance Technique Class Absence Policy
- Two excused absences for this course. Five (5) or more absences (excused or unexcused) may result in automatic failure.
- All undocumented absences are unexcused.
Excused absences may include those related to illness/injury, which are documented by a medical professional.

Events related to family emergencies or professional obligations should be discussed with your instructor. (See Make-up Policy for more information or excused absences.)

if you are more than 10 minutes late, please observe class.

If you must leave class early, please notify the instructor before class begins.

If unable to dance but still attend, you may ‘actively’ observe for full class credit.

UF approved religious days are excused and do not need to be made up. (Travel time not included.) You are responsible for material covered during your absence.

A MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL will not be supported without approved documentation. An Incomplete is only considered by UF Dance in extreme cases and is not available in technique classes.

UF Absence Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to Instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Make-up Policy:

Dance Technique Class – Makeup Policy

- You are responsible for all material covered during any absence
- There are no makeup options for absences for which you have not communicated with the professor.
- Absences from Written Exams, Quizzes, Mid-Terms, and/or Finals may only be made up with approved documentation
- To earn credit (amount of credit determined by the instructor) for an excused absence you must do two things:
  - Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor. If you need the original documentation, the instructor will accept copies.
  - Make-up the class with an approved assignment submitted on the required date. If the assignment is to attend another class as a make-up, it must be the same technical level, or lower; student must request permission of that instructor.

In the UF Dance Program, three unexcused absences will reduce your grade one-letter grade (i.e., from B to C). Each subsequent unexcused absence lowers your grade by half letter grade (i.e., from C to C-). Five unexcused absences may result in automatic failure of the course. A student with medical documentation may apply to UF for Medical Withdrawal.

General Information

Student Injury and Illness Policy:
The Dance Area of SoTD believes that dance student's physical and mental well-being is paramount to success in all arenas of their dance training, from class to the stage. In the case of injury, fostering a productive and holistic response insures a speedy and effective recovery.

If the dance student becomes ill or injured to the degree that they cannot attend and participate in dance classes, SoTD sponsored rehearsals, or performances, the 5 steps of the dance student injury and illness policy are to be followed:

1. The student is required to see a health care professional immediately.
2. If the illness or injury prevents the student from participation in dance class, rehearsal, or performance, the student is to request documentation from the health care professional that explicitly projects the duration of the injury, and/or the amount and type of activity recommended for the welfare of the student.
3. Following the appointment with the health care professional, the student is required to bring medical recommendations and related documentation to the attention of his or her instructor(s), choreographer(s), or director(s) as the basis for discussion.
4. Unless otherwise medically advised, the student is prohibited from active participation in all related UF dance activities, classes, events, performances, etc. The student may not personally select one activity as having a higher priority over another. The student is not to dance in any events, activities, performances or rehearsals if the student is not in dance class. If the infirmity culminates in a medical withdrawal, this is also a withdrawal from all performance related activities.
5. The student is never allowed to sacrifice classroom participation for the demands of a performance. The student will not be allowed to participate in a performance if they miss dance class due to an injury. The student is expected to follow the student injury and illness policy even if performances take place beyond the scope of SoTD, as with another UF, professional, or community performing group, etc.

Please Note: Our work in the studios is designed to be challenging; physically, intellectually, and emotionally. Dance classes often involve touching. Physical contact may range from simple, directed touch to correcting alignment. Students may also be asked to experiment with exercises that involve weight exchange, and in the case of a ballet class, partnering exercises. If you have a related medical consideration or touch makes you uncomfortable, it is your responsibility to notify the instructor at the start of the semester.
