Critical Dates

All assignment deadlines are Monday at 11:59 pm EST with the exception of initial discussion board posts

Discussion Board: Initial post due on Thursdays by 11:59 pm EST and minimum of 2 substantive responses by Sunday at 11:59 pm EST

Please see the course calendar on the Canvas website for all critical dates

Assignments

1. Discussion Board (20 points each x 8 weeks = 160 points total)
Students will substantively participate in all online discussions (one week in duration each) using the Discussion Board on the course website. Topics and discussion questions, often relating directly to required reading, observation or creative process, are posted weekly, and all students will post an initial response by Thursday at 11:59 pm EST, and respond substantively to a minimum of 2 other posts by Sunday at 11:59 pm EST.

Please note, one week of discussion will include review of Capstone Qualifier presentations of current MA students. This discussion may be particularly meaningful given the task of moving toward Capstone preparation in this course.

2. Creative Practice (30 points each; 60 points total) Students will engage in a creative practice in direct response to the course themes and will document the creative practice. Posts may utilize narrative text, photographs, video, or another approved format.
3. Research or Evaluation Design and Plan/IRB Approval (or alternative major assignment with instructor approval) (200 points; see breakdown below)
Students will write and submit one of the following selected major assignments based upon Capstone Proposal:
 - a. Research Design/Plan + IRB Submission for Capstone Preparation
 - b. Evaluation Design/Plan for Capstone Preparation
 - c. Major Grant Proposal toward submission*
 - d. Systematic Approach to Literature Review and/or Case Study toward publication*

*(Instructor approval required)

Assignment length and submission criteria may vary slightly depending upon selected assignment.

Course Procedures

Participation

Participation in all aspects of this course is expected, and essential to your success. Every reading, assignment, and interaction within the course is integral to learning, and therefore full participation is required. It is expected that students will log on to the course website and contribute to discussions and other postings regularly.

Communication

It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the instructor promptly concerning any circumstances that might affect his or her participation in the course. Please do not let any questions or concerns you have go unattended. It is the instructor's intention to respond to all e-mail communication within 24-48 hours.

Written communication and electronic interactions are central to online learning. All written and electronic interactions are to be in keeping with the expectations of a graduate-level academic environment. An online communications guide is available to you in Resources on our course website. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, discussions and chats.

Assignment Submission

All assignments are to be submitted through Assignments on the course website. Please review course policies and procedures for instructions on assignment submission, naming documents, late assignment submission, and where to get help.

If you have computer difficulties submitting any assignments through the Assignment tab on the course website, notify UF Computer Help Desk at helpdesk@ufl.edu or 352-392-4357 and email your work as an attachment to your Course Instructor/s. Please include the case number provided to you by the UF Help Desk documenting your request for assistance in the correspondence with the instructor.

Late Assignment Submission

All assignments will be accepted no later than five days after the due date, except in the event of instructor approval. Points will be reduced from late assignments at a rate of 5% per day. If the assignment is closed upon submission, please attach and submit the assignment in the grading comment thread. It is critical that the instructor can access the assignment in Canvas for grading purposes. Therefore, please do not email late assignments to the instructor as they become quite difficult to track.

Discussion Board or Creative Practice will not be accepted late without communication and written approval by the instructor prior to the due date.

Instructor will not accept work submitted later than six days following the deadline except in extenuating circumstances and with written approval by the instructor prior to the due date. Please see the communication procedure for late assignment submission due to technical difficulties below.

Technical Assistance

If you have difficulty accessing online course materials, please reference the citation or document name and author using an online search engine such as Google to locate the document before contacting the UF Help Desk or the instructor.

UF Help Desk: If you have Canvas-related concerns, computer difficulties submitting assignments or challenges navigating the course website, first notify the UF Computer Help Desk at helpdesk@ufl.edu, 352-392-4357 – select option 2, and/or <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>. Please request the case number provided by the UF Help Desk documenting your request for assistance.

Any requests for late assignment submission due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from the Help Desk when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a late submission of an assignment.

UF Policies

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities

“Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.”

University Policy on Academic Conduct

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.
