CATALOG DESCRIPTION:
DAA 3208 Credits: 2; can be repeated with change in content up to 6 credits. Prereq: audition. Intermediate ballet technique with discussion of terminology and theory.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This class will move beyond the fundamentals of ballet technique to an intermediate level. Class format will be that of what can be considered a historical/traditional ballet class including barre, centre, and petit and grand allegro. Assignments will possibly include readings, video viewings, and a related anatomy/kinesiology research assignment. Historical kinesthetic and aesthetic concerns will be: working with alignment awareness, clarifying ballet line (including rigor regarding outward rotation of the hips), continued fluency in the French vocabulary, and attention to coordination, rhythm, phrasing, and specific musicality. Critical thinking will focus on understanding the ways that ballet technique relates/transfers to and supports other dance forms/practices (including contemporary and world forms). Most importantly, this approach to ballet shifts gaze to a decidedly somatic lens that elevates accurate anatomical and kinesiological knowledge to the level of traditional aesthetics. Other spatial, qualitative, and bodily elements from Laban Movement Analysis, the Alexander Technique, the Dart Procedures/Framework for Integration, and Body-Mind Centering will be continual foci. This class encourages students to increase their body-mind consciousness, to minimize muscular tension, and to re-learn ballet class as fun work instead of restrictive or “hard.”

Somatic pioneer Thomas Hanna coined the term and defined somatics as this: “Somatics is the field which studies the soma: namely, the body as perceived from within by first-person perception. When a human being is observed from the outside -- i.e., from a third-person viewpoint-the phenomenon of a human body is perceived. But, when this same human being is observed from the first-person viewpoint of his own proprioceptive senses, a categorically different phenomenon is perceived: the human soma.”

Along with cultivating a deeper understanding of what “somatic” means, this class will focus on:

• Through specific practices and vocabularies continuing to understand and experience in the body relationship of the parts to the whole and thinking about ballet as a whole body activity instead of shapes and isolated parts/movements.
• Focus on rhythmic accuracy, weight sensing/shifting, phrasing, and musicality.
• Differentiating between shape making and passing organically through shapes to keep a sense of flow and enlivened energy in your movement.
• Integrating technical and performance skills, e.g. the most efficient approach to upper/lower coordination, arm pathways, and spiraling are also aesthetically specific, culturally located, and performative.
COURSE CONTENT:

Students in this course will work towards an intermediate level of physical practice. This is a broad range that includes those who are more towards “Advanced Beginning” level as well as those who are nearly or generally more “Advanced.” All must feel included despite this range. Course content will include a continuation and application of ballet terminology, which is located in European/Western history and culture. Ballet is NOT the foundation of “dance technique” but rather one form amidst a plethora of global, historic forms that train the body in clear physical and aesthetic skills. Ballet has a particular and exclusive white, European history of styles and training practices that germinated from royal and court culture. While this must be acknowledged to fully understand the aesthetic approach of the form, this course mainly focuses on: body alignment, physical clarity, performance quality, and clear understanding and execution of exercises and combinations from anatomical and kinesiological perspectives. Class will include barre work, center combinations, and traveling across the floor in turns and grand allegro. This course will also include methodologies from Laban/Bartenieff Movement Analysis (LBMA), Bartenieff Fundamentals (BF), and the Alexander Technique (AT) to encourage self and community awareness.

COURSE OBJECTIVES/PURPOSE and EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES:

During and upon completion of this course, students should:

1. Embody clear and continued development of kinesthetic and anatomic understanding through taking class.
2. Continue building overall technical dancing skills.
3. Integrate expanding personal knowledge and awareness alongside critical/analytical observations from the instructor.
4. Enhance learning perception through all proprioceptive and cognitive systems.
5. Broaden the ability to learn visually and integrate visual information kinesthetically to the body.
6. Recognize continual bodily tendencies, affectations, and habits and strategize solutions for coping or change.
7. Broaden the ability to hear the rhythm of the music, and understand phrasing, musicality, and “the bounce” in general.
8. Build strength, flexibility, and endurance and understand that each individual’s capacity for all are unique--explore the limits.
9. Practice performance presence and skills: positive energy, concentration, willingness to learn, adaptability.
10. Challenge preconceived and rigid ideas concerning what ballet is “about” and leave mind open for shifts and changes in understanding.
11. Develop and refine expression and artistry.
12. Observe and write about progress and challenges in the course as well as write critically and analytically.
13. Enhance the appreciation of the theory, criticism and aesthetic behind the art form.

Teaching Strategies:

To facilitate and promote the Course Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes, as the instructor I will:

1. Design a class order, progression, and exercises that develop and support said learning objectives.
2. Encourage a sustainable and compassionate class community where students can take risks and make mistakes free from unneeded stress, judgment or harsh criticism.
3. Demonstrate and embody class material as accurately as is possible attending to specific details and qualities I would like to see.
4. Explain concepts and answer questions thoroughly.
5. Provide honest and specific assessment and clear communication in class and through email and Canvas correspondence.
6. Provide space and time in class for questions and the working through of concepts including practicing peer assessment.

Please note that while students will receive individual corrections as time allows, it is likely that by sheer ratio, they will not be consistent in every class. I expect the class community to take general corrections as personally applicable.

PROFESSOR JOHNSON’S NON-NEGOTIABLE SYLLABUS POLICY:

- All work of the course must be completed to earn a passing grade in the course. Any incomplete work will result in a failing grade. You may ask for extensions on any assignment and for your final work.
- Communication is KEY: a lack of communication regarding late work or chronic attendance problems will not help your case.
Course Evaluation will be based in the assignments listed below and the evaluative language in the Course Description, Course Objectives, and Course Content. Each student's assessment is based solely on individual level of engagement with the course material, theory and concepts and working to integrate the information at the individual's developmental level.

Syllabus Note/Disclaimer: This syllabus represents current plans and objectives. Through the semester, the constitution of the class cohort, unforeseen events, and schedule changes may dictate changes. Such changes, communicated clearly, are not unusual and should be expected. Any amendment to the syllabus will be sent to you, updated on Canvas, and be clearly stated and available.

GUIDELINES FOR PROGRESSION IN CONTEMPORARY DANCE PRACTICES/MODERN DANCE TECHNIQUE:

Student progression in Contemporary Dance Practices/Modern dance technique

Classes maximize each instructor’s unique professional orientation to guide you in the dance program’s intentionally eclectic approach to contemporary dance. Using the objectives stated in this syllabus, the dance program assesses student progress through the consecutive levels of Contemporary Dance Practices outlined in the BFA tracking. Each semester, you are graded/assessed according to the assignments and values outlined in the instructor’s syllabus.

Course Objectives for Contemporary Dance Practices/Modern dance technique

SoTD’s modern technique curriculum is designed to focus the intellectual and physical abilities of students—majors, minors, and non-majors—to embrace the eclectic and shifting demands of the 21st century artist. The Contemporary Dance Practices BFA progression introduces the student to varied historical, aesthetic, and embodied perspectives that undergird the foundational understanding of dance techniques necessary to earn the BFA degree.

COURSE POLICIES:

SOTD DANCE ATTENDANCE:

Dance Technique Class Attendance Guide

- Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that upon entering the classroom, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class consistently.
- In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the SoTD 2019-20 Handbook (SoTD website) and included in this syllabus.

Dance Technique Class Absence Policy

- Three excused absences for this course. Excessive absences (excused or unexcused) will affect final grade and may possibly result in failure.
- All undocumented absences are unexcused.
- Excused absences may include those related to illness/injury, which are documented by a medical professional.
- Events related to family emergencies or professional obligations should be discussed with your instructor. (See Make-up Policy for more information or excused absences.)
- If you arrive to class more than 10 minutes late, please observe class.
- If you must leave class early, please notify the instructor before class begins.
- If unable to dance but still attend, you may ‘actively’ observe for full class credit.
- UF approved religious days are excused and do not need to be made up. (Travel time not included.) You are responsible for material covered during your absence.
- A MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL will not be supported without approved documentation. A grade of Incomplete may be considered by UF Dance in extreme cases if all physical/embodied work is complete or made up.

Student Injury and Illness Policy:

The Dance Area of SoTD believes that dance student's physical and mental well-being is paramount to success in all arenas of their dance training, from class to the stage. In the case of injury, fostering a productive and holistic response insures a speedy and effective recovery.

If the dance student becomes ill or injured to the degree that they cannot attend and participate in dance classes, SoTD sponsored rehearsals, or performances, the 5 steps of the dance student injury and illness policy are to be followed:

1. The student is required to see a health care professional immediately.
2. If the illness or injury prevents the student from participation in dance class, rehearsal, or performance, the student is to request documentation from the health care professional that explicitly projects the duration of the injury, and/or the amount and type of activity recommended for the welfare of the student.

3. Following the appointment with the health care professional, the student is required to bring medical recommendations and related documentation to the attention of his or her instructor(s), choreographer(s), or director(s) as the basis for discussion.

4. Unless otherwise medically advised, the student is prohibited from active participation in all related UF dance activities, classes, events, performances, etc. The student may not personally select one activity as having a higher priority over another. The student is not to dance in any events, activities, performances or rehearsals if the student is not in dance class. If the infirmity culminates in a medical withdrawal, this is also a withdrawal from all performance related activities.

5. The student is never allowed to sacrifice classroom participation for the demands of a performance. The student will not be allowed to participate in a performance if they miss dance class due to an injury. The student is expected to follow the student injury and illness policy even if performances take place beyond the scope of SoTD, as with another UF, professional, or community performing group, etc.

MAKE-UP POLICY:
Dance Technique Class – Makeup Policy

- You are responsible for all material covered during any absence
- There are no makeup options for absences for which you have not communicated with the professor.
- Absences from Written Exams, Quizzes, Mid-Terms, and/or Finals may only be made up with approved documentation/permission
- To earn credit (amount of credit determined by the instructor) for an excused absence you must do two things:
  - Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor. If you need the original documentation, the instructor will accept copies.
  - Make-up the class with an approved assignment submitted on the required date. If the assignment is to attend another class as a make-up, it must be the same technical level, or lower; student must request permission of that instructor.
- In the UF Dance Program, three unexcused absences will reduce your grade one-letter grade (i.e., from B to C). Each subsequent unexcused absence lowers your grade by half letter grade (i.e., from C to C-).
  Five unexcused absences may result in automatic failure of the course.

UF Absence Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to Instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.
A student with medical documentation may apply to UF for Medical Withdrawal. Please consult the following sites for UF’s physical and mental health resources:
