Spring 2020

COURSE OBJECTIVE: During the semester we will investigate the art and craft of acting on camera. We will explore various techniques and skill sets which are specific to the worlds of television and film. Some of the things we will focus on are:

   Getting comfortable with the camera/Being watched
   Transparency on film
   Compression
   Subtext/Secrets
   Transformation
   Auditioning/Self-tape
   Spontaneity
   Different Takes/Options

By the completion of the course the student should have a working knowledge of these techniques. The actor should also have discovered ways in which their instrument can be stretched to accommodate the needs of working and creating in the worlds of television and film.

Students are allowed 2 unexcused absences. Excused absences are limited to medical illness documented by a physician, family emergency documented by the appropriate party, religious holidays (please give notice in the first 2 weeks of the semester) and official excuses from school administration. Each additional unexcused absence will result in a 0.5 drop in grade. Also you are allowed 2 unexcused late arrivals. After that 2 tardy arrivals will equal one absence.

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Students with Disabilities Policy:
Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Honor Pledge:
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor of the class.
