Course Description:
One function of this course is to catapult students from summary to interpretation, from regurgitation to analysis, from the simple act of seeing to the complex and bold endeavor of examination. Students are expected to actively measure relevant theoretical knowledge with critical issues pertaining to social justice and social change. Solo Performance emerges out of a desire to heal. Students will create a play intended for a solo performer, and will learn the acting techniques required to successfully mount a one-person show. Additionally, theories, examples, and illustrations drawn from African, African American and African Caribbean cultural expressions will be utilized throughout this course.

Course Objective:
A) To develop the techniques required of the actor to successfully mount a one-person show.
B) To examine personal experiences, connecting them to a social movement, for the purpose of crafting a play that speaks to the larger society.
C) To develop in the student an understanding of theater for social change and explore the various incarnations that form may inhabit.
D) To introduce the student to the foundational elements of playwriting for the purpose of performing the text.

Required Text:
Students are expected to identify a social science book that examines the theme of their play in a meaningful way. Book selection is due on the second week of class.

Recommended Text:

Published plays and reference materials, both of which may be obtained from the campus libraries, will be utilized by the student in class. Handouts may be distributed as well.

Expectations of Scene Work
- Thorough analysis/prep-work
- Characters “live” in the same world
- Clear through-line of thought
- Clarity in objective(s) and tactics
- Vocal explorations
- Physicality

All performances are to be fully memorized whenever presented in class. The course concludes in a final performance utilizing the skills and techniques acquired throughout the semester.
Attendance at UF/Hippodrome State Theatre Productions:
Students are required to see all UF main stage shows and be prepared to discuss them in class. For 2 productions, you will submit a 2-page (double-spaced, 1 inch margin, name & section number in page header) commentary to class (see timetable for due dates). The critique should not be a synopsis of the play. Rather, attention should be paid to the use of creative imagination, physical awareness, proper vocal technique, and the overall creative development. Discuss individual performers, for example. The idea is to report your observations. Draw parallels between what you observe and your work in class.

Class Attendance:
This is a performance class, therefore, attendance is MANDATORY. You must be present to perform. If you miss class, the work cannot be made up. We learn from each other—your presence, whether or not a “performance” is involved that day, is important to the collective learning process.

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. If you come in after attendance has been taken, it is your responsibility to notify the instructor after class that you came in late. With that said, you are allowed 1 unexcused absence and 1 tardy.

2 tardies = 1 unexcused absence
1 Unexcused absence = 30 points from your final grade

Late Assignment Policy:
1. If your written assignments are late (i.e., after the due date) don’t bother turning it in. You will receive zero credit. Keep track of due dates that are outlined on the timetable which accompanies this syllabus.
2. THERE ARE NO MAKE UP DAYS FOR WORKSHOPS OR PERFORMANCE DAYS
   If you miss your assigned workshop or performance day, you forfeit the points for that day. Only in extreme cases will scenes be rescheduled.

*NOTE: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/
Grading:
Students may have varying degrees of “talent” and experience in acting. Therefore, students will not be graded solely on the basis of the skills and talents they bring to the class. Consideration will be given to the student’s improvement and effort that are demonstrated.

Participation is a key factor in grading. Criteria for this grade include attentiveness, participation in and/or leadership of exercises, willingness to participate in class discussions, etc… in general, the TIME, EFFORT, and COMMITMENT the student displays toward this class.

Obviously, assignments must be complete in order to receive complete points. Each assignment will be awarded a specific point value. Points will be tallied at the end of the semester to determine the student’s final grade.

Physical Contact Policy:
Unlike most classes, acting can require a certain amount of physical contact between students or between instructor and student. This contact may be used to aid in releasing tension, promote deeper breathing, or to fuel a deeper emotional connection. If at any time you feel uncomfortable with any physical contact suggested in class, you have the right to refuse it with no repercussion towards any sort of grade.

Academic Honesty Policy:
UF students have the responsibility to conduct themselves in an honest and ethical manner while pursuing their studies. They are expected to abide by the UF Academic Honesty Policy, which defines an academic honesty offense as “the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage.” In the context of this course, this includes conducting original research and properly citing sources for any materials (both printed and online) used in the writing reaction papers, journals, and self-analysis paper. Submitting work that has been plagiarized will result in a failing grade. For more information on the UF Academic Honor Code visit: https://secr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/.
Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation.

Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Final Business: Acting is ACTION. Acting is not about attitude, or being clever. It’s not about your ability to conjure up or manufacture a feeling or emotion. Acting is about the TASK. To get forgiveness, to get them to love you, etc., etc., etc. Be deliberate. Be direct. Be fearless. Learning how to do the aforementioned is the function of this class.
