ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

This class consists of material presented during lectures and presentations; students will also present project work at various stages of completion for discussion and review, which will include the entire class. Attendance is required. You are permitted 1 absence through the course of the semester for ANY reason. Instructor does not require documentation or explanation. Once you have used this 1 absence you will be penalized for missing class. Absences will affect your final grade, which will be lowered one-half of a letter grade per additional absence. Two tardy arrivals will equal one absence.

Four unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

ATTENDANCE AT PERFORMANCES:

Since production is the laboratory for all theater courses, attendance at all main stage Department of Theater and Dance productions is required of students enrolled in classes with the following prefix designations: THE, TPA, TPP, ORI. Critiques of and/or responses to these productions may be required in class.

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

The use of cell phones or other mobile devices is disruptive, and therefore is PROHIBITED during class. Except in emergencies, those using such devices must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period. Students are not permitted to use computers during class without specific permission from the instructor, and in that case, students using the computer for work not related to the class must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period. Classes may not be recorded without express permission from the instructor.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS:

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/

HONESTY POLICY:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sscr/process/student-conduct-honorcde/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352- 392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS -

DESIGN PROJECT: The 39 Steps by Patrick Barlow

Complete design process includes: Design Contract, Design Schedule, Written Design Concept and Character Analysis, Paperwork (scene breakdown, costume plot, pieces list, proposed budget, detailed sourcing), Research, Sketches, Swatches, Renderings, Draper Packet. Project will begin first day of class and be the final project. Grades will be based on designer’s final design package.

WEEKLY DRAWING:

Weekly sketching will utilize the character psychology and apply costume choices from the time period being addressed that week. Character analysis will come from repeated in-class discussion of characters in LaLlorona. The same characters will be designed in each period. Student will choose 2 characters to analyze, design, and sketch. One character must be designed within the context of male historic clothing and one female with the exception of any periods where this representation of gender is not always true. Research which ideas have been drawn from should also be presented.

NETWORKING PROJECT:

Building a network is fundamental to your success in school and upon graduation. Over the course of the semester, you are required to have conversations with 15 directors, designers, technicians, artists, professors, administrators you otherwise might not get to know. At least half of these should be in SoTD. People who cannot qualify are listed below. This does not have to be a formal interview, but should result in you having contact information and information on their career that can be compiled in a simple bullet-point list and turned in.

Cannot Network with:
Any staff or faculty member of Design/Production
Kami - Colleen Rua
Jordan - Charlie Mitchell, Trent D. Williams, Jr., Augusto Soledade, Jason Aryeh Myka - Ryan Hope Travis, Malcolm Gets

FITTING PROJECT:

Fittings are vital to the Costume Design process as it is the primary place we turn concept into reality. You are required to attend fittings in an effort to learn from your fellow designers and drapers. Professor will attend with you whenever possible and this will be scheduled weekly as fitting schedules are announced. This will require appointment time outside of class.

IN CLASS PORTFOLIO:

During class periods, student will produce a portfolio of sketches, renderings, written responses, and digital work that will be evaluated on a rolling basis.
