Course Polices

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

We value participation more than mere attendance. The instructor is responsible for communicating the specific details of what percentage of your grade (if any) will be assigned to participation, and how class participation will be measured and graded. Interaction with your peers and the instructor will empower you to greater achievement.

Attendance is taken in class. Students are allowed 4 absences. After the 5th absence, their overall attendance grade drops 10 points. Days are only excused in the case of emergency, and making up lost work and time will be discussed with the instructor at a case-by-case basis. Provide doctor's notes and proper documentation that applies to a potential situation that would require a student to be out. It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the instructor if there is an emergency, and how to address missing work once the student has returned.

This course allows re-submits for weekly assignments only. The re submit policy is as follows:

- Re-submits open for 1 week from the day your grade is posted. Even if you are not in the critique schedule for that specific week, you will receive individualized feedback. Feedback can be given more thoroughly if the student seeks out the course assistant or instructor. It is the student's responsibility to seek out additional feedback for one-on-one sessions. Utilize class time and office hours for this purpose.
- Re submits can only be completed if the assignment was completed and turned in prior. If you received a 0 for the first submission due to no submission, you are not permitted to re submit.
- Each student receives 3 additional points for re submitting. If you go through the process of re submitting your weekly projects, you will see a positive reflection in your grade.
- Do not email re submits. Emailed projects will not be counted.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/
