OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this course is to expand artistic consciousness through presented research and investigated research at the intersection of society, politics, history, economy, individualism, and clothing. We will investigate beyond traditional western stages: investigating theatrical costume design and the application of history as a tool of visual communication. This course is aimed to challenge and expand student beliefs while rooting each student in their own ancestral past within the context of historical costume.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

This course addresses the following program outcomes:

1. Teaching students how to develop and apply research.
2. Developing critical thinking skills.
3. Increasing student engagement in world culture.
4. Creating a foundation on which students can become effective change-makers

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing this course, students should be able to:

1. Have critical conversations about history and current social issues.
2. More fully understand their personal voice.
3. Understand the intersectionality of design and social environment.

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

THIS IS US is a personal exploration of ancestry and the intersection with history and clothing. The goal is to help you answer the question "Who Am I?" by linking yourself to an individual, moment, or period of your ancestry. Each student will select an individual, period, or moment from their own familial history to research the historical, political, economical, and cultural details. Students will then tell the story of their selection visually, verbally, and through writing. This project is completed in parts over the course of the entire semester. Please see Course Calendar for multiple check-in dates.

Visual: Let your creativity shine. As a community we will create a website to feature your work. Visual format can include photos, videos, collages, renderings - your imagination is the limit! All images should represent accurate historical details and follow proper research methods.

Verbal: During the semester we will tell the story of our exploration and findings. The final class period every student will have the opportunity to present their ancestral story to the class.

Writing (4 pages/2000 words): This should be considered a research report. You should use information from your annotated bibliography to tell the history and link the ancestry to your present. You will be evaluated with respect to grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization

WORN ON THIS DAY: Monday through Friday for the duration of the semester, students will receive a brief, automated email detailing a significant historical garment. Students will select 5 of the emails to reply to posted canvas discussion. Canvas discussion will be initiated on Mondays of each week and will remain open for reply for 7 calendar days.

ONLINE CONTENT: Due to Covid-19, one class period per week, you will complete asynchronous online content to prepare for in person meetings. Asynchronous content will be opened weekly on Mondays for the following week. Content includes readings, videos, chats and quizzes. The content will be closed on Thursday end of day for the current week. Not completing this content will leave you unprepared for class discussions.

CRITICAL DISCUSSION will take place during each on campus meeting. Online course materials address topics that may be uncomfortable to some class members so it is important to attend all in class meetings with an openness to learning and participating.

CAMPUSWIDE POLICY

FACE COVERINGS

EMPLOYEES, STUDENTS, VENDORS, VOLUNTEERS AND VISITORS WILL GENERALLY BE REQUIRED TO WEAR A FACE MASK OR CLOTH FACE COVERING WHILE ATTENDING CLASSES OR WORKING IN UF AND UF HEALTH FACILITIES.

A face mask or cloth face covering will be required everywhere on campus except when in a private office, a work area away from others or in well-ventilated outdoor areas where people are separated by at least 6 feet. People not using a face mask or covering (outside of the exceptions noted) will be asked to put one on or leave the area to help maintain the safety of our faculty, staff and students.

While face masks and coverings may provide you with some protection, their primary purpose is to decrease the risk of spreading viruses and other respiratory diseases by protecting people exposed to you, as you may not be showing outward signs of infection. It is important to use a face mask or covering correctly and follow the basic guidance below, which mirrors CDC recommendations:

TYPES OF FACE COVERINGS

Mask

Cloth

Bandana

- Cover your mouth and nose with a face mask or cloth face covering when around others.
- Wear a face mask/cloth face covering when around others or out in public — for example, in the common area of an office suite or in the restroom, at the grocery store or when picking up other necessities, etc.
- Do not place a face mask or cloth face covering on children under age 2 or on anyone who has trouble breathing or is unconscious, incapacitated or otherwise unable to remove the mask without assistance.
- A face mask meant for a health care worker (N95) is not necessary, unless you are in a setting where there is the potential for direct exposure to a person/persons infected with COVID-19.
- Continue to keep about 6 feet (2 meters) between yourself and others.
- Note that the face mask/cloth face covering is not a substitute for physical distancing.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Students who elect to enroll in a hybrid course are expected to participate in in-person instruction. If a student feels unsafe attending in-person, the student must make arrangements with the instructor to “attend” all class meetings synchronously.

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Due to the nature of the hybrid format of this course, there are NO unexcused absences permitted. Each unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class.

COVID-19 Accommodation: Students who are medically required to quarantine will have documentation from a medical provider. Students who self-quarantine must communicate with the instructor and “attend” courses remotely synchronously, when available, or asynchronously if approved by the instructor.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>) and require appropriate documentation.

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES

The use of cell phones or other mobile devices is disruptive, and therefore is prohibited during class. Except in emergencies, those using such devices must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period. Classes may not be recorded without express permission from the instructor.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>

HONESTY POLICY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
